

Tennant-McDonald Rites July 5 at Methodist Church

GREENWOOD (Special)—The Methodist Church of Greenwood was the scene July 5 of the wedding at 2 p.m. of Miss Dianne Tennant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tennant of Greenwood of Mr. and Mrs. George H. McDonald Jr., of Lincoln.

Rev. Jerry Sandy officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Vernon Greer was organist and Jim Greer sang.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of imported chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin. Natural scallops of lace embroidery fashioned the sabrina neckline of smoothly sculptured bodice featuring brief shirred sleeves completed with mits. Beneath the tiny waist the very bouffant skirt of lace was draped to a short back peolium above a cascade of frothy ruffles of tulle.

Her french illusion veil was caught to a crown of lace accented with pearls. She carried a cascade of sweetheart roses.

Attending the bride was her sister, Miss Sharyn Tennant of Greenwood. She wore a gown of white organza sprinkled with pink flowers. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and pink roses. Kenneth Tubbs of Lincoln attended the bridegroom.

A reception for 150 guests was held in the church parlors after the ceremony. A five-tiered wedding cake centered the serving table. Judy Stewart of Greenwood and Carol Hunt of Ashland cut and served the cake. Carol Sharp of Ashland poured the punch. Sharon Thiesen of Ashland served the coffee.

Kay Triford of Ashland had charge of the guest book. Carol Leadabrand, Sandra Wright, Donna Maughan, Pat Velder, Janice Wiles and Anna Marolf, all of Greenwood, assisted with the serving.

Out-of-town guests were present from Wymore, Beatrice, Falls City, Burchard, Emerald, Prairie Home, Ashland, Lincoln, Burbank, Calif., Torrington, Wyoming and Hawk Springs, Wyo.

The bridal couple will be at home on a farm near Emerald after a wedding trip.

Former Cass County Boy Ranks High In Musical Studies

Many of the residents of Cass County, particularly in Eagle and Plattsmouth, will learn with interest and pleasure of the success that has come to a native son of old Cass County, Ernest Trumble, Southeastern State College professor at Durant, Okla.

He is the son of the late Ernest Trumble and Mrs. Marie Trumble of Alhambra, Calif. He comes of one of the early day families of the Eagle community. His father was also a resident of Plattsmouth and until the Plattsmouth State Bank until his death.

In his college work, Dr. Trumble has made a study of the history of music that he is giving to the world in "The Evolution of Fauxbourdon," a type of musical composition especially popular in the 15th century. Dr. Trumble has put in seven years of research and study preparatory to completion of the work.

He was awarded a doctor's degree from the University of Indiana for the work of preparing the book and has now received a Fulbright Award for European study in music. The greater part of the 600 page edition is being sought by European students of musical history. The research grant will take him to Belgium where he will be attached to the University of Liège.

Enroute to Belgium, Dr. and Mrs. Trumble and their small son will visit England. Parts of the research will take them to Cambral, France, and Naples, Italy.

Mrs. David M. Frans

Mason-Frans Wedding Rites July 11 at Saint John's Church

Miss Joan Burdette Mason, daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Mason, 1504 Hill Street, Plattsmouth, and Mr. David M. Frans, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vollaie Frans 436 South 21st Street, Omaha, were united in holy matrimony July 11.

Mrs. Joseph Pruzdzick officiated at the 10:30 service at St. John the Baptist Church, Plattsmouth, in the presence of 250 guests. Baskets of white gladioli and candelabra appointed the altar of the church.

Mrs. John Bergman Jr. was soloist and Mrs. John Ahrens, organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Leonard Peckman of Clay Center. Her gown was white silk organza over silk taffeta. The very fitted bodice came to a deep point at the waistline and featured a sabrina neckline of chantilly lace, empire effect bodice and short fitted sleeves. Seed pearls and iridescent sequins embroidered the neckline. The bouffant skirt which was worn over many petticoats was encircled with a deep tier of chantilly lace that followed the theme of the hemline into a chapel train. Her veil of imported illusion was held by a crown of fluted tulle and lace encrusted with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. She wore a single strand pearl necklace with matching earrings, a gift of the bridegroom. Her bouquet was a cascade of white gladiolus.

Mrs. Patricia Davey, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She is from Bellevue, Neb. Bridesmaids were Margaret Svoboda, Joann Koubek, both of this city, and Roberta Deitchler of Council Bluffs, Iowa.

They wore alike ballerina gowns of powder blue schiffelle embroidered organza, an original by Janie Frocks. The snug bodice featured a sabrina neckline and short sleeves. The full flared skirt fell from an Elizabethan waistline featuring a wide satin front bow. With it, each wore a cottilian blue horsehair clip with a halo veil and carried a fan arrangement of blue daisies to match the hats and shoes.

Patricia Puster of Omaha was flower girl dressed identical to the bride. She carried a light blue tulle basket with removable corsage of blue daisies.

Mr. Robert Frans of Omaha was best man. The Messrs. Leonard Davey Jr., Hugh McGahan and Donald Pechacek ushered.

A breakfast was held at St. John's auditorium where the tables were decorated with blue and white pom-poms. Miss Hazel Gold was seated at the guest book; Miss LaVora Deitchler and Miss Lois Gagen assisted with the gifts; Mrs. Robert Frans and Mrs. William Berry cut the cake.

For their wedding trip to the northwestern states, the bride chose a blue linen sheath dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. After July 27, they will make their home at 418 North 4th St., Plattsmouth.

The bride attended St. John's Catholic School and Plattsmouth High School. The bridegroom attended Assumption Catholic School and South High School and is associated with Vickers of Omaha.

Nine Clubs Of Navy Mothers At State Meeting

The first Nebraska State Convention of the Navy Mothers Clubs was held in Grand Island, July 11 & 12, with delegates from the nine clubs and many members attending. Towns represented were Omaha, Fremont, Grand Island, Hastings, North Platte, Alliance, McCook, York and Plattsmouth.

Meetings were presided over by Mrs. Alberta McFadden of Omaha, State Commander and Mrs. Lena Lamphere, Omaha, Adjutant.

The Convention was honored by having Mrs. Elsie Boxeman, National Commander of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. Jennie Hayman, National Judge Advocate, of Salina, Kans., present at all sessions, which were held in the Yancy Hotel with the Grand Island Club as hostesses.

Gold Star Mothers were honored in a special way at the luncheon Saturday. The banquet Saturday evening was highlighted by a talk on the advantages of a Navy Career by the guest speaker, Daniel K. Rigby, Chief Electrician's Mate, U.S.N. from the Omaha Recruiting Office. A very impressive and beautiful memorial service was presented by the Omaha Club in which tribute was paid to departed navy mothers, sons and husbands of the past year in the Nebraska Clubs.

Sunday breakfast honored the Past Club Commanders and each was presented with a certificate and membership card signed by Governor Brooks making her an Admiral of the Great Navy of the State of Nebraska.

In the election of officers Mrs. Dolly Saksstorf, Fremont Club No. 915 was chosen State Commander. Among the other officers chosen was Mrs. Genevieve Hayes, Plattsmouth Club No. 680 as one of the auditors. Installation of officers was conducted most impressively by Mrs. Elsie Bozeman, National Commander.

Omaha was chosen as the next State Convention site in 1960.

Delegates attending from Plattsmouth were Mrs. Genevieve Hayes and Mrs. Mary Rea.
