

Mrs. Philip R. Fahrlander

Adcock - Fahrlander Wedding July 26

Lighted candles and baskets of yellow gladioli formed the background for the marriage of Miss Nadine Adcock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer C. Adcock of Milford and Mr. Philip R. Fahrlander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Fahrlander of Plattsmouth.

Rev. Lawrence Williams read the marriage lines July 26 in the Christian Church in Peru in the presence of 200 guests.

Mrs. Clyde Duerfeldt was organist and George Rumber of Milford sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of imported chiffon lace and tulle over tulle. The basque bodice was designed with a Sabrina neckline patterned with iridescent sequins and tapering to bridal points at the wrist. Beneath the slender waist sequins were repeated on lace applique to trim the extremely bouffant skirt of alternating panels of lace and tulle. Her veil of silk illusion fell to fingertip from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Lighting the tapers were sisters of the bride, Linda Adcock and Rebecca Fahrlander.

Judith Miller was maid of honor and attended in mint green silk organza over tulle. She carried a nosegay of white daisies.

Bridesmaids Joe Ellen Mc-Nergney of Tecumseh and Jeanette Romans of Council Bluffs, Iowa, were attired identically to the maid of honor.

Mary Jo Moughey, niece of the bridegroom and Barbara Jean Adcock, sister of the bride were flower girls.

Robert Hoback was best man and ushering were Jim Ulrich and Gerald Adcock.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Richard Livingston of Louisville cut and served the cake; Miss Evelyn Gobber served punch and Mrs. Boyd Wakelin poured coffee.

At the guest book was Mrs. Larry Boyer, and Mrs. Marvin Adcock, Barbara Ulrich and Mary Lou Adcock were in charge of the gifts. Mrs. Leland Blankenship was reception hostess.

The couple are honeymooning in Iowa where they are visiting friends and relatives.

After Aug. 24, they will be at home at Diller where Mrs. Fahrlander, who graduated from Peru State Teachers College last May, will teach in the high school.

Enroute home they stopped at Shenandoah, Iowa, to view the flower gardens, at Fairfax, Mo., to visit Mrs. Henry Martin, an aunt of Mrs. Akeson.

Also, the group stopped at Steinhart Park in Nebraska City for picnic supper.

Wedding of Mary Alice Ruml In Maryland of Interest Here

Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Clark

By Joe Kvasil Washington, D. C.

The marriage of Miss Mary Alice Ruml, daughter of Ervin Matthew Ruml and Henrietta Tomlan Ruml of Letcher, S. D., to Edward Michael Clark, son of Edward F. Clark of Rockville, Md., and the late Agnes Clark, was solemnized Friday morning, July 24, at Saint John Baptist de La Salle Catholic Church in Chillum, Md.

The nuptial mass, celebrated by Father Ralph J. Maher, took place on the birthday of the bride's mother.

The sanctuary was appointed with baskets of white gladioli and white mums. Miss Rose Murphy played organ music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of white cotton lace over tulle. Styled along empire lines, it was of ballerina length and her headpiece was a crescent of white tulle and interwoven pearls with shoulder-tip veil. Wearing white cotton mitts, she carried a white prayer book topped with a white tulle corsage from which fell white satin streamers tied with orange blossoms.

Her maid of honor and only attendant was a cousin, Mrs. Louise S. Boyer of Hyattsville, Md., and Waco, Tex. James L. Clark, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and T. Donald Clark, another brother, served as usher.

A reception for 25 guests was given at the Chevy Chase Inn, Washington, D. C., during the afternoon. Miss Cecelia Clark, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ruml chose a light beige linen and lace dress with white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Mrs. Clara Tennant McPherson and daughter, Elizabeth, of Washington, D. C., aunt and cousin of the bride, were present for the occasion.

Rev. John Flynn performed the ceremony and Catherine Calloway was organist.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of embroidered silk organza over tulle. Silk embroidered sealings framed the Sabrina neckline of the smoothly captured basque bodice which featured brief sleeves completed with elbow mitts.

Showers Honoring Bride-to-Be

Mrs. Joan Stone and daughter Deanna of Murray and Mrs. Vance Balfour of Nebraska entertained a number of ladies at a miscellaneous shower July 22 at the Stone country home in honor of Miss Nancy Lancaster.

Bridge games were played and prizes awarded to the winners. The bride opened her many lovely gifts and afterwards the business served ice cream, coffee and nuts.

On Sunday evening, July 23, 75 members and their families of the Murray Christian Church honored Miss Lancaster and Ron L. Furse whose marriage will be August 22nd.

A 6:30 pot-luck supper was served followed by a musical program.

Later in the evening the couples were presented with a number of beautiful gifts.
