THE SILENT TREATMENT

Tokyo - Police recently questioned four men charged with picking pockets for half an hour without one of the men answering a question.

Eventually, as the police were beginning to lose their patience, one of the men wrote on a piece of paper and handed it to the police.

It read: "We are all deaf and dumb".

Christ Lutheran Ladies Aid Observes Golden Anniversary

The Golden Anniversary of the Christ Lutheran Ladies Aid Society was observed July 29 at 2 o'clock at the church parlors of Christ Lutheran Church, Louisville. The Society was organized July 29, 1909, by 10 ladies.

Miss Karyl Davis played organ preludes while the guests were arriving. Mrs. A. B. Lentz and Mrs. Verner Friedrich greeted each lady and presented her with a corsage of garden flowers and gave each member a satin-net hostess apron which they made.

Presiding at the guest book was Mrs. Herman Hennings and Mrs. Fred Wehrbein. One hundred and twenty-five attended.

Mrs. Fred Wehrbein was in charge of the Golden Anniversary booklets.

Mrs. Arthur Hild, president of the organization welcomed the guests and presided over the program.

Golden thoughts were given in the devotion by Mrs. Joseph Puls.

The charter members, Mrs. Jake Hild, Mrs. Fred Hild and Mrs. Ed Gansamer were presented prayer books and gold pins for their 50 years of faithful service. Mrs. Ed Gansamer, president for 15 years, told some of her fondest memories of the Ladies Aid.

Mrs. Marie Spriegel Gehring, daughter of a former pastor, was guest speaker. She told of her memories when Ladies Aid was young.

The Ladies Aid Quartette, accompanied by Miss Karyl Davis, sang three songs. The quartette was Mrs. A. B. Lentz, Mrs. Wayne Meisinger, Mrs. Verner Friedrich and Mrs. LaVerne Meisinger.

Many letters, cards, love gifts and memorials received by the Society were announced by Mrs. LaVerne Meisinger.

To commemorate the 50 years, a Golden Anniversary Booklet which contained pictures and historical highlights of Ladies Aid, was compiled by Mrs. Herman Hennings, Mrs. Fred Wehrbein and Mrs. Jake Kraeger.

After his message, Dr. A. B. Lentz dedicated a money dish he had made of native walnut in remembrance of the first president of Ladies Aid, Mrs. Ferdinand Hennings. Mrs. Herman Hennings accepted the money dish. His remembrance gift of gavel and block carved from native walnut was accepted by Mrs. Arthur Hild.

The program was closed with prayer by Dr. A. B. Lentz and a hymn by the quartette.

The floor-length satin table cloth used on the tea table was made by Mrs. A. B. Lentz and Mrs. Verner Friedrich for the occasion. Peace roses were arranged on either side of a large tiered cake baked by Mrs. Glen Kraeger and decorated by Mrs. Forrest Engelkemier.

Mrs. Verner Friedrich and Mrs. Clarence Meisinger served the ice cream. Cutting the cake was Mrs. A. B. Lentz and Mrs. Glen Kraeger. Mrs. Arthur Hild and Mrs. Franklin Wehrbein poured coffee. The punch was served by Mrs. Clarence Engelkemier and Mrs. LaVerne Meisinger.

The many faithful friends who came to pay tribute to the past and present members on the 50th anniversary of the Ladies Aid helped to make this a day

Fitch Family Enjoy
Trip To West That Covered 6,000 Miles

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fitch and son Lloyd Leland, just returned from a 6,000 mile trip to the Southwestern States.

They took in such sights as the "largest well in the world" at Greensburg, Kan., the Dalton Gang's Hideout at Meade, Kan., Zion National Park, Grand Canyon National Park, Boulder Dam and Las Vegas. They visited the Wayne Fitch family at Indio, Calif., and spent a day at the world famous Disneyland.

They visited friends in Los Angeles and drove north to Sacramento to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Deger (formerly Jane Applegate, a Plattsmouth High grad).

They accompanied the Degers to a camp site in the mountains for a week of fishing and hiking. They saw many interesting sights there.

They drove to Reno and also visited the ghost town of Virginia City.

They spent a day deep-sea fishing in the Pacific along the San Francisco harbor. Lloyd brought home a 24-pound salmon to prove his luck.

Enroute home, they toured the Mormon square at Salt Lake City and saw the sights around Laramie and Cheyenne, also stopping at Little America, Wyo.

The trip proved educational and exciting but they were happy to get back to familiar Nebraska and see the WELCOME sign of Plattsmouth.
