FOIL THE WIND
Might pass these bits of advice on to an outdoorsman: Don't let unexpected cold winds spoil the sport when you hunt, fish or camp out. Line your jacket with aluminum foil... you'll stay warm as toast. Another emergency use: Shape two or three layers of heavy foil to form a pan. Just the thing for grilling meat, fresh fish or vegetables over a campfire. And no utensils to wash!

BUTTER BRIGHTENER
Delicious on crispy crackers or salty rye bread: Blend in 4 hard cooked egg yolks, mashed, 1 tsp. prepared mustard and dash of pepper with 1 cup creamed butter.

YOU'RE TOO NICE
In this modern day, the messy job of carrying garbage to the trash can is not for you! It seems as old-fashioned as cooking over an open fire, or washing clothes by hand. It's so easy to make your life (and your kitchen) truly modern. Why wait? Install a new automatic gas incinerator now! Then, even messiest clean-up jobs become almost pleasant. Just wrap up waste, scraps, papers (even chicken and steak bones) and drop them in. They're consumed quietly, quickly, without smoke or odor. See gas incinerators on display at your local gas company or gas appliance dealer soon.

HAPPY ENDING
Bedtime can be "happy time" for children! One mother tucks her young one in as they go over the day's events. Mom tells about the fireman who took Mrs. Brown's cat down from the tree. Junior tells about the new friend he met. Mom leaves child with thought about tomorrow — "Let's have hot cereal for breakfast." Child feels safe and loved: Mom relaxed and happy!

POP'S EFFICIENCY PLAN
When the new family moved to our block, know what the "Papa" did first? He set up the swing and slide, filled the sandbox with fresh sand! The three youngsters stayed out from underfoot, happily occupied. Before long, new playmates were attracted to the yard. Soon the children were at home in the "strange" neighborhood.

BUSY, BUSY DAY
Baby's crying... dinner's burning... laundry's still undone! Need help? Go GAS. Automatic refrigeration, controllable cooking, speedy clothes drying, smokeless incineration, dependable water heating, perfect air conditioning and house heating... all yours with gas! You get so much more for so much less, you can't afford to be without it. It's economical, clean, always there when you need it. And gas service for your home can't be beat. Your dependable pipeline supplier is Northern Natural Gas Company. They pipe gas to your local gas company, who pipes it into your home seven days (and nights) a week.
