

Local Scouts Get Recognition At Camp Cedars

More than 175 Scouts and Scouters from the Covered Wagon Council assembled at Camp Cedars for the semi-annual convocation of Pohaw Lodge of the Order of the Arrow. The Order of the Arrow is apart of the program of the Boy Scouts of America. Candidates for membership in this order are selected by the boys of each troop.

Each troop may have one candidate each year for every 15 First Class Scouts who camped out at least 15 days and nights. Scout leaders are chosen on a district basis.

Scouts Tom Hansen, Joe Rizzi and Ken Rhylander and assistant Scoutmaster Robert M. Mann were the candidates from Troop 369, Plattsburgh, who received "Ordeal Membership" at this convocation Saturday.
