Auxiliary Urges Traffic Safety As School Starts

School starting here Monday has brought much concern to the American Legion Auxiliary Community Service Chairman, Mrs. Virginia Schalk. She has words of advice for all mothers, students and the general public.

"We of the American Legion Auxiliary want safety stressed to the utmost. We urge mothers to caution students at all traffic crossings and for the first week at least to give much assistance at all neighborhood school crossings," she said.

Here are some of her suggestions for bicycle riders:

1. Obey all traffic signs and regulations.
2. Keep to the right side of the road.
3. Ride single file at a safe distance behind the vehicle ahead.
4. Stop to see that sidewalks and streets are clear before riding out of alleys or driveways or from behind parked cars.
5. Dismount and walk bike across heavily traveled streets.
6. Signal your intention to turn.
7. Carry parcels or books in luggage carrier.
8. Never ride two on a bike.
9. Never hitch onto other vehicles.
10. Do not stunt on streets and highways.
11. Have a white light on at night in front of bike and wear light colored clothing.
12. Keep your bike in good condition.
13. Park your bike in a safe and proper place, standing upright.
