Miss Guthmann Returns From Extensive Trip

Returning Friday to her home here after a three months absence was Minnie Guthmann, and accompanying her here was her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Guthmann of Boise, Idaho.

Later the Boise visitors will leave for Silver Springs, Md., where they will be guests of Mrs. D. C. Gardner.

On leaving Plattsmouth three months ago Miss Guthmann went first to Denver, Colo., and onto Santa Fe, N. M. to visit a nephew, Joe Guthmann. She visited in Farmington and Aztec, N. Mex., where she found the climate perfectly beautiful, and becoming very industrialized.

From Farmington she went to Gallup where she took a plane to Long Beach, Calif., visiting with Dr. and Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Fred G. Egenberger. Mrs. Egenberger's health remains just about the same. She is well known to Cass County residents.

At Los Angeles Miss Guthmann visited with Mrs. Grace Goodchild, a former Plattsmouth resident, and at Oakland, Calif., with the Paul Lempe family. Miss Guthmann visited in Boise, Idaho with relatives; was in Ontario, Ore. and enjoyed a fishing trip in the wilds of Idaho. The Plattsmouth lady enjoyed her trip immensely, but was happy to return to her home here.

Los Angeles, Calif. — People who dream about traveling around the world, then shake their heads over the cost, can learn an interesting lesson from Don Ahlstrom.

The bearded former serviceman did it on a budget of $500 and arrived in Los Angeles on a Japanese tanker with $6 left. He had toured 18 countries, mostly on a motor scooter.

Ahlstrom, 25, financed his 21-month trip by working at odd jobs along the way.
