Reinwand--Barron Wedding In Iowa Of Interest Here

Miss Martha Maurine Reinwand, daughter of Mrs. Stacey Reinwand of Fremont, Iowa and Mr. Jack William Barron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barron of Council Bluffs, Iowa, exchanged marriage vows Aug. 15 at 2 o'clock in the St. John's Lutheran Church in Oskaloosa, Iowa.

The double ring ceremony was read and signed by Reverend Mappes of Omaha. It was a candlelighted ceremony with the altar framed with arrangements of pink gladiolus and baskets of flowers.

Mrs. Wm. Hois played the organ prelude and accompanied Mrs. Marguerite Lee who sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Larry Reinwand, designed and made her wedding gown, which was of white Chantilly lace over satin. The bodice featured long fitted sleeves and low neckline. The back of the skirt lay in soft folds from the waist to the hem, and formed a small train. Her fingertip veil of net caught up in a lace and pearl crown. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, and she carried a bouquet of white Fuji mums and ivy.

Attending the bride were the Misses Marlene Hestness and Helen Case, both of Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Howard Wood was best man, and Franklin Wermimont, groomsmen. Both men are of Council Bluffs, Iowa. Ushers were Darrel Weiner of Ames and Dale Kern of Cedar Rapids.

The bride's colors of pink and green were carried out in the decorations of the church parlors where the reception for 125 guests was held. The serving table was laid with a lace cloth over pink, and centered with a three-tiered, posted wedding cake, surrounded by pink carnations and grape ivy. The lace cloth was hand crocheted by the bride's mother.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of the Iowa School for Deaf at Council Bluffs. The bride has been employed at a printing office in Des Moines. The bridegroom is a linotype operator at the Plattsmouth Journal.

After a short wedding trip they are at home on Rte 1, Council Bluffs.

Konfrst Family To Weddings

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Konfrst and daughters Patty and Nancy attended the wedding and reception Sept. 6 at Council Bluffs, Iowa., of Frank Konfrst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Konfrst of Glenwood, Iowa.
