County Has 87 Livestock Entries At Ak-Sar-Ben

Omaha — The 32nd annual Ak-Sar-Ben Live Stock Show, like the majority of its predecessors, once again will be acclaimed the world's largest 4-H Beef Show.

This was assured today when Stock Show Committee Harry B. Coffee closed the books on the entries.

The Live Stock Show is held in conjunction with the Ak-Sar-Ben World Championship Roddeo. Both will begin Friday.

"We are greatly pleased with the number of entries we received from four states and are highly honored to be playing host to more than 1,000 boys and girls from this area," Coffee said.

Last year, 1,037 boys and girls participated in the Live Stock Show.

The number of entries this year includes: market steers, 871; market heifers, 214; pens-of-five market steers, 30; pens-of-five market heifers 13; purebred beef heifers 71; dairy cattle, 321; market swine, 241; and sheep, 153.

This gives the 4-H Show an overall total of 2,086, as compared to 2,037 last year.

Coffee said 102 counties are represented, including 65 from Nebraska, 31 from Iowa, four from Minnesota and two from South Dakota.

Leading county this year is West Pottawattamie, Iowa, with 165 entries. Cuming County Nebraska, is second with 143 and Washington County Nebraska, third with 99. Next in line are Cass County with 87 and Lancaster County with 84.

During their stay in Omaha, the 4-H youngsters will be busy with day-long Stock Show events and evening attendance at the rodeo which will feature Chuck Connors, "The Rifleman" of TV and his "boy," Johnny Crawford, in person at all 12 performances.

SAVES CHILD
Boston — As she worked in her home, Mrs. Helen Slattery had a habit of looking out of the kitchen window to see how the children in the back yard were getting along.

To her horror, one afternoon she saw Bobby Eaton hanging by his neck from a clothesline. Mrs. Slattery rushed out and rescued him.

The boy got tangled in the line when he fell from the roof of a shed on which he was playing.
