

MURRAY NEWS

Mrs. Richard Todd
Phone 4914

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Brubacher spent last week with relatives at Auburn, Sunday they visited their daughter, Mrs. Ed Kugler and family at Lincoln, and together they attended services at the First Presbyterian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Parr Young are in Albion, Mich. where they will spend some weeks at the home of their daughter and family, the H. T. Nelsons. Mr. and Mrs. Young will assist the Nelsons in the apple harvest at their orchard.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Todd have returned from a trip of a few weeks to the west coast where they had the pleasure of visiting a number of brothers and sisters and their families. Mr. and Mrs. Todd report a most pleasant vacation.

Mrs. Gertrude Dill and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jenkins visited their sister Mrs. Sadie McAllister in Sioux City, Ia. Sunday.

A group of the workers in the Presbyterian Sunday School were in Lincoln Sunday afternoon attending a Fall Curriculum Work Shop for teachers at the First Presbyterian Church.

Those attending were Rev. and Mrs. Barr and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cundall, Mr. and Mrs. Marjorie Wiles, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Todd, Mrs. Towner Livingston, Mrs. Francis Hofford, and Mrs. Dale Wohlfarth.

Rev. Howard B. Hutchman, who has recently been indisposed, was so far recovered that he was able to attend church services Sunday.

Guests of Mrs. Rosie Wohlfarth are her sister, Mrs. Christine Fredericks from Fontana, Calif. and her sister-in-law Mrs. Freda Wohlfarth Bridges and Mr. Bridges of Downey, Calif. The California people traveled here by car, and will spend some time with relatives and friends in eastern Nebraska. All are former Cass Countians.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nickles were business visitors in Omaha Monday.

The women of the Christian Church are busy with plans and preparations for their annual chicken dinner which they will serve Oct. 1.

Verner Perry of Big Springs, visited his sister, Mrs. C. D. Spangler and niece, Mrs. Martin Sporer as well as other relatives and friends Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Bailey of Coleridge, former residents of Murray, were here Monday to visit some of their friends; among them Mrs. Alta Young and Mr. and Mrs. Parr Young. They were accompanied by Mrs. Bailey's mother, Mrs. Tideman.

A number of members of the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church, accompanied by Rev. Barr, accepted an invitation from the women of Central Presbyterian Church in Omaha to attend a luncheon and afternoon meeting of their group. Dr. A. K. Stewart was the speaker for this meeting and stressed the great need for more missionary workers for the Alaskans. The ladies spent an enjoyable afternoon and were happy for the privilege of visiting with Dr. Stewart, who has been well known in the Murray community. His father was the late Rev. Niel Stewart, former pastor of the Murray United Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Stewart recently returned to his home in New York City after spending a number of months in Alaska doing missionary work.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Rogers and Steve enjoyed a weekend trip to the Ozarks.

The new home of Bob Spangler family on the Davis farm west of Murray is gradually assuming a home-like appearance.

Their former home was destroyed by fire some weeks ago.

Mrs. Fred Hild was hostess to the Murray Women's Study Club in her new home in Plattsmouth Thursday afternoon. Although a rainy day, attendance was good and a number of guests were present.

President, Mrs. Evelyn McKusky opened the meeting with the Lords Prayer said in unison. Roll Call was answered by members telling the most interesting book they ever read. After a short business session, the meeting was turned over to the leader, Mrs. Norma Price, who gave a very interesting and much appreciated book review. Mrs. Hild served refreshments and was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Hansen of Nehawka, Mrs. Henry Hild, and Mrs. Roger Hild. The club will meet with Mrs. Henrietta Wunderlich for the October meeting and Mrs. Park will be co-hostess.

Rev. and Mrs. Joe Barr drove to Mission Creek Sunday evening. They attended the rededication of the sanctuary ceremony of the Presbyterian Church on which extensive improvements have recently been completed. Rev. Barr who grew up a member of that church had a part in the ceremony. They also visited Rev. Barr's parents.

Mrs. Alice Creamer, who fell Sunday morning suffered a broken hip. She is in the hospital in Nebraska City. Mrs. Creamer will be 94 in December.

Sunday evening guest at the Charles E. Spangler home was Kenneth Lynk, who is a hybrid corn grower from Marshalltown, Ia. Mr. Lynk recently returned home from a farm tour of Russia and the Spangler family was treated to picture slides of his trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gansemer and daughters, Gay and Janet were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. John Stones and daughters, Deanna and Linda. Present also were Mr. and Mrs. Vance Balfour and daughters, Susan and Carol from Nehawka. The dinner was held in honor of the birthdays of Mr. Gansemer and Mr. Stones.

Pack Meeting Well Attended

Cub Scout Pack 399 held its monthly pack meeting Sept. 18 at the high school auditorium, with a large attendance.

Cubmaster Fred Fischer conducted the meeting, assisted by Charles Ault and Joe Loper. The opening ceremony was by Den 1, Mrs. Baburek, den mother. A Bobcat ceremony was held for the following new Cubs: Lurie Love, Galen Mussen, Johnny Fischer and Kenny Adkins.

Chairman of awards Mr. Ault presented awards for the month of September; wolf badges to David Carper, Walley Armstrong, Lindell Garrett; silver arrow after wolf to Don Kohout, Michael Mahlman and Johnny Simons (2).

Bear badges to Michael Kief and Mark Gall; gold arrow after bear to Billy Rishel, Michael Kief, Mickey Coolman, Gary Williamson, Steve Baburek, Sterling Sand and Mark Gall; silver arrow after bear to Mike Brookhouser, Stephen Miller, Steve Baburek (3), Sterling Sand (2), Billy Rishel, Michael Kief, Mickey Coolman and Gary Williamson.

Lion badge to Michael Kief; gold arrow after lion, Michael Kief; silver arrow after lion, Tim Kalasek (2) and Michael Kief.

One year service star to Dicky Chappell; denner to Steve Baburek; assistant denner to Johnny Simons.

Mrs. Esther Rishel received a two year pin for being a den mother and Mrs. Betty J. Ault a one year pin.

The Cubs will start their annual candy drive the week of KKK. The swimming program for the Cubs will begin Nov. 1 at the Jewish Community Center in Omaha.

Wayne Schneider asked the Cubs to assist at the Kormation and march in the parade Saturday.

The Cub Scout exposition will be held Nov. 20-21 at the Civic Auditorium in Omaha.

Pack 399 now has 10 dens, the new den mother being Mrs. Martha Overstreet. Den 4, Mrs. Ault, den mother, presented the skit for the evening, The Doggie Skit.

Den 6, Mrs. Buechler, den mother, received the Pack Flag for the month of September. It is based on highest percentage of attendance, uniform, conduct and display.

The theme for the month was Pets and Hobbies. The displays for the month were as follows: Den 1, individual planters with plants, miniature salt dishes from bottle caps, Italian gourds, construction paper decorated pumpkins, collections of rocks and models.

Den 2, pencilolders made from juice cans, scrapbooks, collections of money, keys and knives.

Den 3, pig banks made from soap cans, collections of horns, money and rocks.

Den 4, bird cages made from plastic containers and soda straws, snake neckerchief slides made from fishing poles and pipe cleaners, various scrapbooks.

Den 5, football centerpiece, painted vases made from bottles, corn cob darts, collections of pins, book matches, also a live rabbit.

Den 6, scrapbooks, models, rock and stamp collection.

Den 7, bird houses and models.

Den 8, pig banks made from soap cans, rock paper weights, various live pets.

Den 9, rock collection, animal plaques and scrapbooks.

The meeting was closed with a prayer by Den 2, Mrs. Adkins, den mother.

Our language is called the mother tongue because the old man seldom gets a chance to use it. — Quonset Scout, U.S. Naval Air Station, Quonset, R.I.

Nature's law of balance never fails. When a man's pate quits producing hair, his ears take on the job. — Detroit Free Press.

KEEP IN TOUCH

Loris B Long, local realtor, attended the Nebraska State Real Estate Association Convention in Lincoln at the Cornhusker Hotel Sept. 17 and 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Glass, son and daughter of Leesburg, Mo., were guests here this week with Mrs. H. A. Jacobs and family.

Mrs. Bernice Newell Fuller of Brewster, Ind., arrived Wednesday for a visit with old friends. She is a house guest of Miss Helen Hunter.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sack of Murray were Mrs. Carla Sack, grandmother of Mr. Sack, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sack.

Will Steppat of Gregory, S.D., Ann Marie Timken of Beatrice and Frank Steppat of Omaha were here to spend the past week with their sister, Emma Kaffenberger, who is ill. While here, they visited at the homes of P. A. Meisinger, E. C. Steppat, also other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heil Jr. of Louisville were in Plattsmouth Tuesday shopping and taking care of business matters.

Sam Rothen of Ashland, arrived Wednesday to visit with old friends as well as to enjoy the King Korn Carnival. Mr. Rothen is a former resident of this community and was engaged in farming in this locality.

Arthur Anderson, brother of Mrs. Garfield Dunning, spent Tuesday night at the Dunning home. He has been in Providence, R. I., on business and is on his way home to Ogallala.

Edward Baumgart, well known farmer of west of the city, who suffered a stroke the past week was taken Wednesday to St. Joseph's Hospital in Omaha by Sattler ambulance.

Lester Taylor of this city was taken to St. Joseph this week by Sattler ambulance.

Mrs. Roy E. York of Lake Wilson, Minn., was a weekend guest in the Methodist parsonage here. Mrs. York is a sister of Mrs. A. L. Embree.

Mrs. Alice Creamer of Murray is a patient at St. Mary's Hospital at Nebraska City. She entered the hospital Monday.

Supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob White Monday night were Mr. and Mrs. Art White of Proctor, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. Harry White, and Mrs. Luella Kehne. The Art Whites left for home Tuesday morning.

William Spradlin, termite exterminator expert, with his assistant, Earl Troop, was at Valentine the past week where they had a large number of jobs to clean up.

John Sykora, postoffice employee, who has been in the Veterans hospital at Omaha for a number of weeks, returned home Tuesday evening. John is feeling much improved and while still showing the effect of the long illness, is expected to resume his usual activities in a short time.

150 Attend W W Parsonage Opening

WEEPING WATER (Special) — Open house was held Sunday at the Congregational Church's new parsonage. About 150 persons attended.

Guests were greeted by the pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. I. C. G. Campbell. Punch and cake were served from a table, centered with a bouquet of pink gladioli and carnations and orchid chrysanthemums. The Junior and Senior Youth Fellowship groups assisted with serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell received a basket of pink gladioli from Mr. and Mrs. Byron Baker for the occasion and this was placed in the entrance hall. The flowers for the table were a gift of the Parsonage Building Committee.

Guests came from Lincoln, Nehawka and Avoca and greetings were received from many families who had contributed to the house.

CENTURY IN ONE CHURCH

Munterville, Iowa — For all of her 100 years, Mrs. Mary Kindblake has been a member of the local Lutheran Church. She was enrolled by baptism at the age of only a few days.

The boy who weighs 196 pounds and made a record as a high school football player will be welcome at almost any college, even if he is a little dumb. — Indianapolis News.

Harry A. Bellinger Jr. received word Friday that his father, Harry A. Bellinger Sr., underwent an emergency ulcer operation at St. John's Hospital in Joplin, Mo. Three-fourths of his stomach was removed and he received nine pints of blood. He is responding to the surgery and barring no complication will be on the road to recovery. He will remain in the hospital some two weeks. No malignancy was found and the doctor's word was that the operation was successful.

Mrs. William D. Oswald called her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slatinsky Sr. and expects to arrive by plane Friday afternoon and spend a week visiting. It has been seven years since she and her husband left Omaha to make their home in Long Beach, Calif. Teresa and Bill wished her father a happy birthday. Mr. Slatinsky celebrated his 76th birthday Saturday Saturday.

Bob Williams entered the Methodist Hospital Tuesday and is in traction in room 763.

Mrs. Don Teague of Ralston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Siemoneit of this vicinity, was taken suddenly ill while at work Tuesday and submitted to an emergency appendectomy at 4 p.m. at St. Catherine's Hospital, Omaha. She came through surgery in fine shape. Mrs. Teague is a secretary at Western Electric Plant. She and her husband Don reside at 7636 Park Drive, Ralston.

Mrs. J. J. O'Connell has returned from a two weeks visit with her son and family at San Francisco, Calif. While there she attended a Giants game. The trip was enjoyed by Mrs. O'Connell who traveled by plane.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lovell of Greenwood were here Tuesday to attend to business at the courthouse and visit their cousin, Mrs. Anna Stoll.

Community Church Has Local Man As Minister

Plattsmouth Community Church has been, one the large and active religious group in the city, had the pleasure of having a native son of Cass county, as their pastor in the past few weeks.

Rev. John D. Hoschar, member of a prominent Murray family has had charge of the church and its activities and finding much success in his work. Before being assigned here, he was in charge of a number of church groups out state.

The new minister is well known here as he was a student at the Plattsmouth high school before taking up his religious training.

Obituary

ADDALENE CHRISTIAN WEeping WATER (Special) — Funeral was held Thursday afternoon at the Congregational Church in Weeping Water for Addalene Lorenzen Christian, with the Rev. I. C. G. Campbell officiating. C. V. Wallick sang, accompanied by Mrs. S. H. Harmon, organist.

Mrs. Christian was the former Addalene Lorenzen, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Eric Lorenzen. She was born in Manley Dec. 7, 1900, and died at her home in Lincoln Sept. 14. She moved to Weeping Water with her parents and graduated from Weeping Water High.

She was switchboard operator for the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph Co. for 31 years, 24 of which were spent at the Weeping Water Exchange.

She joined the company as an operator Nov. 10, 1924, and on April 10, 1929, she was promoted to assistant chief operator.

Dec. 1, 1936, she was promoted to chief operator, a position she held until being transferred to Lincoln as an operator on Feb. 1, 1948. She retired July 12, 1956, due to ill health.

She was a charter member of the Frank H. Woods Chapter of the Independent Telephone Pioneer Association.

Surviving are her husband, Thomas B. Christian of Lincoln, sisters Mrs. Mabel Breckenridge of Weeping Water and Mrs. Etta Bergman of Fargo, N. D., brothers Fred and Grover of Manley.

Pallbearers were Willis Lorenzen, Lloyd Lane, Roy Ward, Eugene Day, Rasmus Lauritzen Jr. and Eugene Domingo.

Avoca High Names Class Officers

AVOCA (Special) — At school elections last week, the following officers were elected (listed in this order — president, vice president, secretary, treasurer):

Seniors — Beverly Brinkhoff, Sally Carsten, Shirley Bose and Crystal Seegel.

Juniors — Eleanor Vance, Philip Boehm, Ruth Buckholz, Marilyn Tritsch.

Sophomores — Henry Hunterman, Sharon Stubbendick, Steven Carsten, Roger Ehlers.

Freshmen — Ronnie Wohlers, Larry Meyer, Kathy Norris.

Pep Club — Beverly Brinkhoff, Shirley Bose, Marilyn Tritsch and Linda Rohlf.

Cheerleaders — Marilyn Tritsch, Ruth Buckholz, Paula Ludwig, Beverly Brinkhoff, Linda Rohlf.

Sponsors are Lou Stueckrath, seniors; Spencer Leger, juniors; Mrs. Nilsen, sophomores; Bill Davis, frosh, and Mrs. Nilsen, Pep Club.

Investiture for Scouts, Brownies At Nehawka Sunday

NEHAWKA (Special) — Five girls received the Curved Bar and six Brownies flew up Sunday at the investiture service held at the Methodist Church.

The Curved Bar and first class rank were awarded to Susan, Carol and Beverly Balfour, Julia Johnson and Ann Nutzman. The Brownies who flew up were Diana Diel, Ellen Engelkemeyer, Julia Mitchell, Sylvia O'Connor, Mary Whittington, Cheryl Pollard. The first three were present for the ceremony.

Mrs. Arthur Johnson was invested as a new leader. Mrs. Fred Wessel will continue as assistant leader. Mrs. John Chandler, who has been assistant leader for a year and a leader for three years resigned. Mrs. Johnson will take her place.

Nella Pierce, Lois Whittington and Joyce Forno received second class rank. Others who received badges were Linda and Karen Engelkemeyer, Barbara Chandler and Lois Whittington. Linda, Barbara and Lois received their Curved Bar last year and worked on badges this year.

The Girl Scout committee of Mmes. Julian Johnson, Ned Nutzman and Vance Balfour served refreshments.

A Classified Ad in The Journal cost as little as 50 cents

Does more for you IN EVERY WAY...

Aloha by Formfit

- BETTER FIT!
- BETTER FASHION!
- BETTER VALUE!

$250

Feel wonderful, look wonderful... Aloha is the bra that does more for you in every way! Shapes and holds a pretty fashion line... breathes and moves with you for real comfort... machine washes for extra easy care. Important features include circle-stitched cups for shaping and support, elastic front band comfort release, no-bind elastic release in back strap. Fine cotton broadcloth with nylon lace center front. White. 32A to 38C. Be fitted in Aloha No. 568 for fit, fashion and value.

Style Shop

Get Your VITAMIN Facts

--from a PROFESSIONAL MAN!

Who is better qualified to give you the truth about vitamins and vitamin values—an itinerant salesman... or a professionally trained pharmacist? The pharmacist—of course! His factual knowledge of vitamins and his professional responsibility to you safeguard your health and your pocketbook. We will gladly give you the advantage of our knowledge and experience in selecting the best vitamin buys for you from our stocks of doctor-endorsed and recommended products.

VITAMINS NEED NOT COST A FORTUNE WHEN PURCHASED FROM YOUR REGISTERED PHARMACIST.

100 MULTICEBRIN VITAMINS	$4.98
250 ONE-A-DAY VITAMINS	$6.49
100 UNICAP MULTIVITAMINS	$3.11
100 WHEATAMIN VITAMIN AND MINERAL TABLETS	$1.50
1 Pt. HOMECEBRIN LIQUID VITAMINS	$3.96
60 Day Supply GERIATRIC CAPSULES	$9.25
1 Pt. VITAMIN SYRUP	$4.98
30 cc VITAMIN DROPS for infants.	$2.35

We carry all the standard and endorsed lines Not Just One. See us for your particular brand.

WE GIVE S & H GREEN STAMPS

FELDBOUSEN DRUGS

Your Friendly Drug Store
BRING US YOUR PRESCRIPTIONS — PHONE 6117

More People Than Ever are Cooking with GAS

Big Round-Up Values on famous brand GAS ranges

This Gold Star Symbol of Quality Ranges

CHOOSE THESE BIG GAS COOKING FEATURES

- Top Burner with-a-Brain
- Top or Oven Rotisserie
- Automatic Oven
- Smokeproof Broiling

Select your brand at your GAS Range Dealer or The GAS Company

TERMS TO SUIT YOUR NEEDS

Only GAS does so much... yet costs so little.

The GAS Company
CENTRAL ELECTRIC & GAS COMPANY

Have THE "CLASSIFIED" PAGES!