John K. Jessup, Old Mills County Resident, Dies
John K. Jessup, 86, native of Mills County, Ia., died Tuesday at the Hillcrest Nursing Home west of this city where he has been a patient for sometime. Mr. Jessup was born March 8, 1873 in Mills County, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Jessup, early day residents of that county. He made his home for many years in the Pacific Junction community, moving some forty years ago to Plattsmouth where he has since made his home. He has been engaged in farming during his residence here. Funeral services were held this afternoon at the Sattler funeral home.

Obituary
Nellie R. Stall
EAGLE (Special) — Nellie Russ Stall, daughter of John Jacob and Marietta Russ was born March 17, 1879, in Bennet and died Sept. 16 at 80. She was married to Irvin Stall Nov. 29, 1899. They owned and lived on a farm two and a half miles south of Eagle, where her son Wilber has lived since the parents moved to Eagle. The couple had 10 daughters and three sons: Doris Eley, Irma Krumm, Vesta Stall, all of Lincoln; twins Mabel Myers of Palmyra and Myrtle King of California; Ramona Stall, Eagle; Helen Burlingame of Missouri; Nina Hardnock and Irene Rose of California; sons Wilber of Eagle and Ira of Lincoln. She also had a step-daughter, Mrs. Elsie Herman and a step-son Joseph of Lincoln. They all survive. Preceding her in death were her husband, Irvin, a son, Henry, and a daughter, Mary, and step-daughter Etta. Also surviving are 24 grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren and a sister, Myrtle Gambrel of Omaha. Mrs. Stall was a member of Eagle Methodist Church. Mr. and Mrs. Stall celebrated their golden wedding November, 1949, with an open house at their home in Eagle. Mrs. Stall suffered a slight stroke and recovered several months ago and early last Wednesday morning, suffered another stroke, rallied and then had a complete stroke and died that afternoon. Funeral was Sunday at Eagle Methodist Church with Rev. Robert Bowne officiating. Soloists were Irma Manners and Melvin Adams. Luella Fischer was organist. Pallbearers were Dale and William Trumble, Henry Trunkenzol, Harvey Gerhard, Chas. Scattergood and Orin Lanning. Burial was at Palmyra.

Mrs. Wanda Bomer Former Resident Dies at Iowa Home
Mrs. Wanda Bomer, 65, of Glenwood, Iowa, former resident of Plattsmouth, died Monday night of a heart attack at Pacific Junction, Iowa, where she had been operating the telephone exchange since last spring. She was born July 22, 1894, at Carson, Iowa, daughter of Nellie and Casin Montgomery. Mrs. Bomer was the widow of Lew Bomer who died last November at Glenwood. They had been farming south of Glenwood since moving from Plattsmouth in 1936. Survivors are four daughters, Norma Chase, Amber Stoll, LaRue Mandolff and June Campbell; her father, Casin Montgomery, Elm Creek; sisters, Mrs. William Maas, Elm Creek; Dean Little of Long Beach, Calif.; brother, Keith Montgomery, Long Beach; six grandsons and two granddaughters. Funeral will be Friday at 2 p. m. at the Christian Church at Glenwood. Burial will be in the family plot at Glenwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Emma B. McMaken, Long Cass County Resident Dies
The death of Mrs. Emma McMaken, 87, resident of Cass County for the greater part of her lifetime and an active figure in the social and religious life of Plattsmouth for many years, died at Hebron Sept. 21. She was born Dec. 22, 1871, daughter of John and Katherine Inhelder Busche, at the farm home at Cedar Creek, in which community she spent her childhood years. She was married in Plattsmouth to Joseph H. McMaken, a member of one of the pioneer families of Cass County. They made their home in this city for many years, Mr. McMaken being engaged in the contracting business for years and also serving as City Councilman from the old 2nd Ward. With the death of the husband in 1938, Mrs. McMaken later moved to Wymore and Hebron to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Sherman Taylor, since 1940. Mrs. McMaken was a member of the Royal Neighbors of America and the Women's Benefit Association in the years of her residence here. Survivors are her daughter, sons Ray of Sidney, Iowa, Joseph of Plattsmouth and Fred of Omaha; 11 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren. Funeral was today at the chapel of Sattler Funeral Home with Rev. A. L. Embree, pastor of First Methodist Church officiating. Mrs. Lloyd Heusman was soloist for the service with Mrs. Fred Fischer at the organ. Pallbearers were grandsons of the departed, Harlan Atkinson, Carl Mueller, Joe Taylor, Joe N. McMaken, Edward McMaken and Henry Guy McMaken. Burial was at Oak Hill Cemetery in the family plot.

Death of Nebraska Native
Last rites were held Sept. 13 at 2 p.m. at the Gothic Chapel of the Hagy-Keenan Mortuary, Alameda, Calif., for Donald Eugene Warlick, 29, who drowned in a boating accident at Clear Lake, California, Sept. 8. He had served as manager of Alameda Jewelers at the South Shore Center since the store opened in August, 1958. He served on the board of directors of the South Shore Merchants Council and early last month had been named promotion chairman for the council. A native of Nebraska, he was the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Warlick of Nehawka, who survive. He is also survived by his wife Phyllis of Oakland; three brothers, Byron A. Warlick of McCook, Floyd L. Warlick of Falls City and Alfred of Nehawka, and a sister, Mrs. Amy Jane Meyer of Plattsmouth. He served in the Navy from 1950 to 1954 and had been in the jewelry business for five years. Burial was in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery at Nehawka. Out of town friends and relatives at the funeral were Mrs. Helen Sholz, Colby, Kan.; Mrs. Edith Hartzell, Scott City, Kan.; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cunningham, Denver, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Brown Woods and family, Mountain Grove, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dicke, Stratton and Mr. and Mrs. John Dole and Dennis and family of Omaha.
