Mrs. Duane L. Krecklow

Miss Karen Hoover Is Wed To Mr. Duane L. Krecklow

Miss Karen Hoover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hoover, became the bride of Duane L. Krecklow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herold A. Krecklow of Elmwood, at an 8 p.m. ceremony, Oct. 3 in the Methodist Church, Roca, with Rev. Robert Turner and Rev. Sandhall officiating. Mr. Wayne Carpenter was soloist with Mrs. Fredia VerMass at the organ.

For her wedding the bride chose a re-embroidered gown of Alienian lace. Scallops of lace formed the square neckline. The lace overskirt revealed a tiered tulle front panel sweeping back into a cascade of ruffles which formed a brush train. Her veil was held by a sweetheart hat. She carried a white orchid and pink stephanotis.

Mrs. Eddie Moormeier, sister of the bride was matron of honor. She was attired in a waltz length gown of mint green taffeta. Bridesmaid was Miss Carol May of Roca, and bridesmatron was Mrs. Warren Kolder of Lincoln. Their gowns were of Bronz taffeta styled the same as the matron of honor. Pattie Crawford served as flower girl and wore a floor length dress of white lace. Ringbearer was Kivvin Moormeier, nephew of the bride.

Dale Krecklow served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Royal Halverson of Palmira and Dwight Wiles, cousin of the groom of Weeping Water. Seating the guests were Neil Stein and Kenneth Walker, both of Lincoln.

The food was prepared as in the lesson "Cooking in your Skillet". Foods prepared by Mrs. John Terryberry and Mrs. Wagner were "Italian Spaghetti, Corn Bread and Skillet Cookies". Two other casserole dishes and salads made up the menu. A lively discussion of "Skillets" followed. All types of skillets plus many electric ones were compared.

The assistant hostesses, Mrs. Richard Livingston and Mrs. Glen Terryberry served the "Hot Fruit Compote A La Mode" and coffee after the business meeting.

The business meeting opened with repeating the flag salute and singing of "America" and "Billy Boy". The mystery song clues are getting more complicated each time. Still no correct identification.

It was agreed to do sewing for the hospital again next year. A tour of Western Electric is scheduled for Thurs. evening October 22 for members and their families.

It was announced that our club had 65 entries in the Korn Carnival Flower Show, accounting for 25 awards.

Committees were announced for the family party to be held at a later date.

Next meeting is to be Nov. 12 at the home of Mrs. Eugene Meisinger.

Seventeen members and one visitor took part in the days activities.
