State Democrats Can Help Develop Platform Nov. 7

Newcastle — Russell V. Hanson, Democratic State Chairman, predicted last week in an address to Democratic workers that the Mid-Term Democratic Convention at Lincoln, on Nov. 7 will be "the biggest in Nebraska's history" and "a platform developer for the 1960 campaign".

"Democrats and Independents from all over Nebraska will have an opportunity to share in preliminary preparation of the 1960 State Democratic platform in all-day sessions in the Cornhusker Hotel," said Hanson. "Agriculture, taxation, highways, new industry labor and social welfare will be among the platform items discussed".

The program also provides for political workshops and a separate meeting of the Young Democrats of Nebraska.

Senator Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota and Governor Ralph G. Brooks will highlight the evening dinner program and Congressman Larry Brock will speak at the noon luncheon. "All Democratic Party officials, including National Committeeman Bernard J. Boyle of Omaha, National Committee woman, Mary Cunningham of Rulo, Vice-Chairman Pat Heaton of Sidney and Mrs. Lillian Kozisek of David City are expected to attend. Congressman Donald McGinley who will be on duty with a Congressional Committee in the Pacific, will be represented by his assistant, John Kelley. State Treasurer Richard Larsen will also play a prominent role in the days activities" Hanson concluded.

Don Hovendick, general manager of the association, will give a report of the association's 1959 operations.

Diek Kiburz will review the activities of the Weeping Water field office.

The group will be entertained by the "Seven Sizzling Sons of the Sod." Refreshments will be served following the meeting.
