Couple Marks 50th Wedding Anniversary Here

WEeping WATER (Special) — Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nickels of Plattsmouth celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Oct. 31, with relatives and a few friends calling for the occasion. No open house was held due to the ill health of the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Nickels were married Oct. 31, 1909 at Dunnegan, Mo. They made their home near Dunnegan until 1912 when they moved to Murray. They lived in the Murray and Union vicinities until 1926 when they moved to Weeping Water and lived there for 17 years, again moving to Union.

They moved on a farm near Plattsmouth in 1950 and are making their home there at the time of their golden wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Nickels have farmed most of their married life until the past few years.

The gift table was attractively covered with gold and a lace tablecloth. A large basket of cut flowers, a gift of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Sudduth of Plattsmouth graced the table. Centered on the table was a large anniversary cake in white with gold flowers, baked and decorated by their grandson, Glen. White candles in a 3 branch candelabra were on either side.

Carol and Velda Nickels, granddaughters, dressed in alike dresses of blue taffeta, were in charge of the guest book and served the refreshments. Mrs. Frank Nickels and Mrs. Edward Van Horn assisted with the serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Nickels have three sons, Cecil and Arthur of Buffalo, New York and Frank of Plattsmouth; eight grand-nickels of Weeping Water; Grand Nickels of Omaha and Velda Nickels of Plattsmouth; Mrs. Steven Horvath, Jr. of Fairport Harbor, Ohio and Roger and Betty Nickels of Painesville, Ohio and Robert Nickels of Buffalo, New York.
