After Thanksgiving NOTE!

'Twas the day after Thanksgiving My clothes showed I'd been living It up with relatives and friends. On jacket and dress, spots of sauce and gravy; Damp children'd left their mark and my pants were wavy. So I said to my wife, "Take them to Plattsmouth Cleaners. And it won't be long before we again can be preeners."

Miss Neeman Weds Danny Workman

WEEPING WATER (Special) — Miss Verna Neeman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Bowman and Danny Workman, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Workman of Louisville were united in holy matrimony at the Immanuel Lutheran church at Louisville on Nov. 6, at 7:30 p.m. Rev. Lyle Mueller officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. Fern Jochim played the organ music.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Delmer Neeman, wore a floor length gown of chantilly lace. The scoloped neckline was covered with pearls and iridescent sequins. Long sleeves tapered to bridal points at the wrists. The bride's veil was of white net with pearls and iridescent sequins surrounding the crown. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations, blue mums and lily of the valley. The bride's jewelry was a pearl necklace.

Mrs. Donald Dobbs of Louisville was matron of honor. She chose a blue chiffon dress over taffeta and blue accessories. Donald Dobbs served as best man.

A reception for the immediate family was held following the ceremony in the church parlors. Mrs. David Nielsen cut the wedding cake. Mrs. William Workman poured the coffee and punch.

Mrs. Workman chose as her going away ensemble a green wool sheath dress with black accessories.

The bride is a 1959 graduate of the Weeping Water High School and is employed at Omaha. The bridegroom is a 1959 graduate of the Weeping Water High School and is employed in Louisville. The couple will make their home in Louisville.

Holiday Programs Planned By VFW Auxiliary

Holiday programs planned for the needy families and senior citizens of the community were the highlights at the meeting of the Auxiliary to the veterans of Foreign Wars held on Tuesday night at the V.F.W. Club. Presiding at the business session to a large group of the members in attendance was the Auxiliary present Patricia Baburek.

A Christmas party will be held with the Post members, Santa to be present with gifts for the children and a program planned, date to be announced.

Gift shop will be held at the Pearl Myers building on Main Street where parents may select toys and clothing for their families; a drive is being conducted at the present time for clothing and toys that can be repaired or mended by Post and Auxiliary members.

A committee will prepare fruit baskets and present to shut-ins and senior citizens.

Each of the Veterans hospitals at Omaha, Lincoln and Grand Island will be sent a contribution of $5 to be used for their Christmas parties.

The Auxiliary Christmas party will be held at the December meeting and a gift exchange. Members are also asked to bring canned goods for the Christmas baskets.

Applications for three members were read, voted on, accepted and to be initiated at the December meeting.

Thank you notes were read from Florence Persinger, Charlotte O'Donnell, Clara Stockton and Cass County Historical Society.

Discussion held on organizing a Junior Auxiliary, with secretary to notify all members of the date of the voting to take place.

Maxine Bowman cancer chairman, reported $4.00 per member has been sent to Department and quota had been filled. Norma Wilson, hospital chairman, announced a party for Veterans at the Omaha hospital had been scheduled and Auxiliary members would conduct the bingo games.

Pearl Myers reported the Halloween party a success and that plans were forming for a program concerning the youth of the community that could be sponsored by the Auxiliary.

Ruth Porter, community service chairman, read the rules concerning the scrapbook and projects.

Edith Dasher, one of a committee on churches of the community, reported on several projects that would aid the Church program. A gift contribution will be given the Methodist Church for the music fund, and other Churches to be given gifts.

Sophia Wolever National Home chairman, reported $106 had been sent the National Home for the health and happiness fund for children of the home, and the quota had been sent the Nebraska Cottage fund. $2 will be contributed to the Cass County TB Association for Christmas Seals and $2 to the National Home For Seals.

Luella McLean, Americanism chairman, read an interesting letter on Thanksgiving week as Old Glory Week. Margaret Fitch, courtesy chairman, reported on the ill members and of the cards and planters that had been sent.

Mae Favors and Patricia Baburek, had solicited in the business district for the Historical Society building fund.

Ruth Porter, membership chairman, and Sophia Wolever are planning a drive to collect dues in order to enable the Auxiliary to reach 100 per cent by Dec. 30.

A magazine subscription drive that was held several weeks ago netted a sum to be used in purchasing hospital equipment. Dolls will be purchased by the Auxiliary and dressed by the members to be placed in the VFW gift shop.

Verna Warga, volunteer worker at the Veterans hospital in Omaha, suggested various articles that were needed at the hospital.

Ruth Porter reported the illuminous decals that have been taken to shut-ins and Senior Citizens, have been very acceptable and an aid in the event of fires.

Meeting adjourned with the retiring of the colors and a social hour following with Clara Price conducting a program.

Members were served from a beautifully appointed table carried out in the Thanksgiving motif. Hostesses were Margaret Fitch, Alpha Mucie, Julia Ann March, Lucille McLean, Hazel Andrews, Marcella Applegate, Clara Essert, Ida Colner and Irene Stockwell.
