Navy Mothers Club Meets for Party

Navy Mothers Club met at Consumers on Thursday evening with 14 members present to enjoy a covered dish dinner and Christmas party.

Mrs. F. W. Essert, commander, presided at the business meeting following the dinner. It was voted to give $2 to Christmas Seals. The club will also send a gift to each one in the TB Ward at VA Hospital. A list of 39 names was received by welfare chairman Mary Worsham.

A committee went to Veterans Hospital, Dec. 8 to hold a games party.

A total of $25 in gifts will be sent to gift shop at Veterans Hospital in Lincoln.

Edith Akeson was installed as adjutant for remainder of the term. Mrs. F. I. Rea having moved away.

Mike Troop Has Broken Jaw

Mike Troop, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Troop, met with an accident of his way home from school Wednesday.

A first grader at Rock Creek School, Mike was pedaling his bicycle home with other neighborhood children when he hit a pile of loose rock.

He was taken to a doctor in Nebraska City and it was thought he had just received bad lacerations, but xrays showed he had a broken jaw.

The lad was taken to the Methodist Hospital to have the jaw set today.

Regular Meeting Of Central PTA

Central PTA met at the cafeteria with Les Hutchinson presiding at the business meeting Monday night.

A project of a pancake supper was discussed and tabled. It was reported 104 members are paid to date.

A clothing bank committee was recently organized and is well underway. Shoes and underclothing are items needed at the bank, but out of stock, so a cash fund was started at the meeting.

Mr. Hutchinson reported the basketball goals were purchased and are to be installed.

Christmas trees will be purchased and placed in each grade room at Central School and a large tree for the Junior High, to add to the spirit of the season for the children.

It was voted the refreshment hostesses each time be responsible for the greeters at each meeting. Major and Mrs. Beavers were the greeters for Monday's meeting.

Mrs. Ray Bourne was appointed to the hospitality committee to remember PTA families at time of serious illnesses and bereavements.

Beverly George, the schools' vocal instructor, led in the singing of Christmas carols. Mildred Hall, grade teacher, served as piano accompanist.

First grade retained the PTA parents attendance banner.

Following the meeting, a group of sixth grade mothers served refreshments from a lace covered table decorated with Christmas greens and candles.

Miss Marler Is Married Dec. 4 To Mr. Philip Wayne Lawrence

Baskets of bronze and yellow mums and pom poms and candelabra decorated the altar of the St. Paul Evangelical and Reformed Church here Dec. 4 for the wedding of Miss Charlotte Irene Marler and Mr. Philip Wayne Lawrence.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Marler of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Lawrence of Bellflower, Ill.

The Reverend G. E. Seybold, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony at 7:30 in the presence of about 200 guests.

Mrs. Fred Nolte played the nuptial music and also accompanied the soloist, Miss Carole York of Seward, cousin of the bride.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father. She was gown in white Miramist taffeta fashioned on princess lines featuring jeweled Venice lace yoke and long fitted sleeves that tapered to a point at the wrists. Jeweled lace motifs trimmed the bouffant hipline, and a bustle bow accented the waistline. The full skirt terminated into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil, a flare of layered tulle, fell from a crown of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a white orchid with lily of the valley on a white Bible.

Jean Marler, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was attired in a green brocade taffeta street length dress. The frock was full skirted with V neckline and long sleeves. She wore a matching headband with veil, and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow and bronze carnations.

Mary Ellen Tritsch was bridesmaid and Claudia Marler, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. Their gowns were beige brocade taffeta and styled as the maid of honors. Each wore matching head bands with veil and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow and bronze carnations.

Pamela Tritsch was flower girl and candelighters were Miss Sharon Range, cousin of the bride, and Miss Janice Korber of Bern, Kans.

Best man was Mr. Rodney Aho of Offutt Air Force Base. Groomsman were Mr. Roger Smith, Mr. Sheldon Siemers, Mr. Paul Green, and Mr. Bruce Schroeder ushered.

Mrs. Marler chose for her daughter's wedding a blue lace over taffeta dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue silk dress with royal blue accessories. Both mothers wore a corsage of yellow roses.

Misses Rosemary Wolski, Carole Hunting, Dorothy Faris, Jane Thimigan, Janie Grindle, Lynn Schwarte and Rosemary Grundmann served at the reception. A four tier cake and crystal candelabra decorated the serving table.

The newlyweds left immediately on a trip to the south. The bride chose a two piece blue suit with black accessories. Upon their return they will reside at 117 North 7th Street.

The bride is a graduate of the Plattsmouth Schools, class of 1957, attended Peru State Teachers College and is employed at The Plattsmouth Journal.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Bellflower Township High School, class of 1957, and is stationed at Offutt Air Force Base.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ruff, Fremont; Miss Janie Grindle, Malvern, Ia.; Lynn Schwarte, and Mrs. Jessie Klinger of Omaha; Jane Thimigan, Des Moines, Ia.; Rosemary Grundmann of Peru; Jean Korber, Bern, Kans.; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Yerk and daughters Becky and Carol, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Schroeder and Bill Briggs, all of Seward, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lawrence of Bellflower, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hughson of this city were visitors this week at the home of their daughter, Mrs. George Davis Jr. and family at St. Joseph, Mo.

WSWS Meets With Mrs. Wetenkamp

Mynard W.S.C.S. met Dec. 3 at Mrs. Glen Wetenkamp's with Mrs. Myron Wiles assisting. Roll call was answered by 18 members. There were several visitors.

The meeting was opened by the singing of Christmas Carols.

Mrs. Robert Cole, Mrs. Arthur Toman and Mrs. Willis Cole held everyone's attention while presenting the lesson in puppet show fashion. The figures in the story represented Foreign Exchange students, who came to visit one of our churches at Christmas time then they told how they celebrated Christmas in their countries.

It was stressed that each person should prepare their hearts for Christmas to get the full benefit of the Christmas Spirit, one way for this is to read our Bibles.

Mrs. Shafer would like for everyone to report the books they have read.

Mrs. Arthur Toman is pleased with the increase in Girls and Boys Fellowship meetings. But with the increase she needs an assistant to properly care for the different age groups.

The meeting was closed with a Prayer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heesch of Shenandoah, Ia., were visitors here Monday at the Henry Thiele home. Mrs. Thiele and Mrs. Heesch are cousins.

Mynard Club Names Officers

The Mynard Community Club met the evening of Nov. 27 at the community hall. There was a general discussion of program material for the new year.

In the election of officers Royal Smith was voted in as president; Mrs. George Mumm, vice president; Mrs. Glen Wetenkamp, secretary and Art Toman, treasurer.

A lunch and social hour followed.

Mr. Finnefrock to Wed Miss Schmitz

A wedding of interest here is that of Mr. Byron Finnefrock who will on Dec. 26 take as his bride Miss Anne D. Schmitz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Schmitz of Merna, Neb.

The event will take place at St. Cecilia's Cathedral in Omaha at 11 in the morning.

Archie Stull who underwent surgery at the Methodist Hospital returned to his home Tuesday.
