Virgil E. Rose Early Day Union Resident Dies

Cass county residents will learn with regret of the death of Virgil E. Rose, 91, at Coleridge, Neb., on Wednesday, Dec. 2 at the Coleridge Nursing home where he suffered a heart attack. He had been failing since Friday preceding his death when he sustained a fall at the home.
Mr. Rose was a member of a pioneer family of Liberty precinct, born February 11, 1868, in a log cabin near Union, where his parents were early settlers. On February 26, 1891, Mr. Rose was married to Ella Sherwood at Union and they continued to make their home in that community until 1912 when they located in the Coleridge community.
Mr. and Mrs. Rose celebrated their golden wedding last February at their home with members of their family and friends.
Surviving Mr. Sherwood are the wife, Ella; one daughter, Mrs. Velma Schultz, Sheridan, Mont.; two sons, Frank of Twin Bridges, Mont., and Reginald, Coleridge.
Mrs. John Hobscheidt, Sr., of this city is a sister of Mrs. Rose. Last rites for Mr. Rose will be Friday at Coleridge and burial there.
