School News
The Elmwood Music Department presented its annual Christmas program Dec. 3. There were over 500 people who attended.
The elementary school children outdid themselves with very sweet music combined with a pleasant Christmas story in an operetta called "Red Candles." Nancy Miller, a seventh grader, did an excellent job accompanying.
Accompanists for the high school were Mrs. Dwight Clements and Lynne Whittemore.
The operetta and the high school numbers were directed by Eunice B. Stock.
Mrs. Glantz directed the numbers by the kindergarten. They did a fine job.
Elmwood played their first basketball game at Eagle Dec. 4. Elmwood led at the half but was defeated 57 to 49. Our second team won 41 to 14. Our volleyball team was defeated in 2 out of 3 games.
There will be a game here on Friday the 11th with Cook and on Tuesday the 15th with Malcom at Malcom.
The Senior girls took the Betty Crocker Award tests last week. We have not received the results.
Our Christmas vacation will start Wednesday, Dec. 23. School will take up again on Jan. 4.
