Calendar: Community Kensington, Dec. 31.

"One World Through Christ" was the theme of the study on international good will presented under direction of Mrs. F. C. Ebinger and Mrs. Walter Oehlerking Sr. at the WSWS meeting at the EUB Church Dec. 9.

During the study, ladies representing five foreign students, lonely and away from home met at a church on Christmas Eve. Each brought memories of home, family and Christmas customs.

Through this conversation, prayer and by singing Christmas hymns, the ladies of the Society were "led to worship the Christ whose love travels around the world and to commemorate his birth."

Those participating in the service were: Student from Holland, Mrs. F. C. Ebinger; Mexico, Mrs. George Bornemeier; Japan, Mrs. John Stolz; Africa, Mrs. Ray Hanson; Germany, Mrs. Walter Oehlerking Sr.

Various items of business were transacted. Hostesses were Mrs. Harvey Backemeyer and Mrs. Wayne Houston, who served a dainty lunch on tables centered with bright Christmas balls nestled among small branches of pine in keeping with the holidays.—Mrs. Lester Rosenow, reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Eveland, Bruce, Kristie and Allen are on a trip to California. His parents left Saturday to spend the rest of the winter in Long Beach as is their custom and Paul's are to eat Christmas dinner with them before they return home. Mrs. Blanche Kuehn and Alice are taking care of the youngest of the Eveland children.

Dr. Betty Clements arrived from Phoenix, Ariz., where she resides to spend the holidays at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Clements.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Clements visited relatives Sunday and showed slides their son, Kenneth sent from his station in Europe.

The first meeting of the Stove Creek Rustlers was held Wednesday evening at the home of Glenn Miller, leader. Assistant leader is Myrl Miller. Officers are president, Clayton Miller; vice president, George Pool; secretary, Nancy Miller; reporter, Theron Bornemeier.

Nine members were present. Next meeting will be Jan. 4 at the home of Clayton Miller.

Rev. F. C. Ebinger entered the hospital Saturday suffering an abscess on one knee.

After receiving a telephone call on Dec. 14 from her son, Don, and family in Williamsburg, Va. insisting that she come to spend Christmas with them, Mrs. Emily Gonzales was able to get reservations. She left by train Dec. 17 and will be gone several weeks.

Afternoon visitors at the home of Mrs. Margaret Laughlin were her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wade of Tecumseh Dec. 16.

The Bluebird Club held their regular meeting with Mrs. Ray Parsell, nine members, and two visitors present. One of the visitors was the County Home Agent, Mrs. West, the other, Elida Lenz. The president, Mrs. G. R. Eveland presided. Augusta Robb gave the lesson on Christmas trees. She spoke of the national forest at Halsey. The usual Christmas offering was given to the local library. Mrs. S. L. Clements was assistant hostess. A dainty lunch was served.

Rev. John H. Oehlerking filled the pulpit at the EUB Church Sunday in the absence of Rev. Ebinger who was in the hospital.

Mrs. Fred Weisheit and her five sisters and their families got together for their annual meeting around Christmastime. This year they met at the George Kraft home in Manley. Of course, their mother, Mrs. Mary Lau, of Murdock, was with them.

Mrs. Ethel Strabel and Mrs. Susie Cook attended the regular meeting of the 8 and 4 at Plattsmouth Dec. 21.

Mrs. Emmett Cook who took the United States Farm Census in this territory has had it completed for about two weeks.

Ned Totman of Lincoln spent the weekend at the home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Totman.

THE MAN AT THE WINDOW — Here's a fine actual view of the Christmas mailing line as seen by the postal clerk, from the inside. He sees, of course, just the person next in line at the window, except at rare moments when the line actually runs out and the clerk can take five (seconds, that is). C. A. Rosencrans is the "man at the window," being helped by clerk Vern Hendricks while extra clerk Bill McCormick checks the scale for a parcel charge.

The Junior Choir of the Methodist Church sang again Sunday, as they do once a month. After rehearsal Saturday they received a sack of treats.

Last week Mrs. B. E. Sumner was in the hospital for treatment but is at home now and feeling much better.

School News

On Friday, Dec. 18, Elmwood played Nehawka with the following results: the volleyball team lost two games. The second team won in a game which was very close in the first half, 42-29. The first team had an easier time, winning 78-20 over Nehawka. At halftime is was 9-8. Don Hollenbeck was high for Elmwood with 21 points. Birds feed their young in various ways. Most small birds carry insects or fruit in their bills, and pop the food into outstretched mouths. Others swallow the food and later cough it up. Hummingbirds employ their tubular tongues to inject the youngsters with nectar. Cormorants and pelicans open their mouths and let the babies help themselves.

Some plots of terraced land on the Island of Bali are so small they hold only four rice plants each.
