Women's Club Meets At Cook Home

The Plattsmouth Woman's Club held their regular meeting Monday evening, Jan. 4, at the home of Mrs. J. B. Cook. Mrs. Dalton welcomed the 13 members and one guest.

The meeting was opened by Mrs. Dalton reading a poem by Henry Van Dyke. The pledge of allegiance to the flag and the club collect was read in unison.

Mrs. P. F. Rihn gave the devotions from the 13th chapter of 1st Corinthians and closed with a prayer.

American Legion Auxiliary sent a letter of appreciation for the Club's contribution of food for the needy at Christmas time.

Mrs. W. P. Kraeger reported a book "Hawaii" by James Michener was purchased and given to the Public Library.

Members voted to give $15 to the Club's various funds, of the federation.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Alice Perry was introduced and spoke on the Cass County Historical Society. She told of the Society being organized 24 years ago and of the new building now under way. Mrs. Perry said "The heart of a museum is its collections and the manner in which they are cared for. The first step is to acquire exhibits, second step, catalog and mark properly each item, third step is to store in an orderly manner and display so they tell a story. She stressed in order to keep up interest, the exhibits must be changed from time to time.

Objects for a museum are obtained in three ways. 1. Gifts 2. Loans, and 3. Purchases. The objects must be fully documented and held in trust for present and future generations.

Mrs. Perry urged all to support the museum, as a museum of the rich heritage of our country ranks along with a library and is a visual aid to education.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. E. C. Giles, Mrs. W. P. Kraeger, Mrs. Sybil Hetrick, Mrs. Joe Zastera, Mrs. Ward Schade, Mrs. A. L. Embree and Mrs. J. A. Capwell.

'THE AMERICAN IDEA' — This is one of the room settings of the Home Furnishings Program, a series of slides with commentary to be shown to the Women's Civic Club here Jan. 11 at 8 p.m.

Women's Civic Club To See Home Furnishings Program

"The American Idea" Home Furnishings Program, presented by the Celanese Corporation of America will be shown Jan. 11 at 8 p.m. at the Consumers Building for the Plattsmouth Women's Civic Club.

Commentary on the 56 colored slides will be read by Mrs. Ray Bourne. Besides 48 room settings, there will be featured roof structures of the Celanese House, hanging gardens, landscaped terraces and enclosed patios.

Original American paintings and sculpture on loan from the Whitney Museum of American Art greatly enhance the decor.

The great American Heritage has been tapped in this fabulous New Home Furnishings program.

An added feature is a dress length to be given as a door prize.

Visitors are welcome, the club advises.

Florida Residents Enjoy Winter Here

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy M. Allen of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., are spending a winter vacation here from Florida with Mr. and Mrs. Guy G. Griffin.

Mr. Allen is a brother of Mrs. Guy Griffin. They are enjoying the snow and wintry, zero weather, which is quite a contrast to usually warm and sunny Florida.

They came before Christmas and helped Mr. and Mrs. Griffin celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary.
