A card from Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marshall states they are at Troy, Ala., visiting their son Clark and family and getting acquainted with the new grandson, Scott Charles.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Brown are happy over the birth of their first great grandchild, Jan. 2, a boy to their granddaughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Vogler of Lincoln. (Miss Rosalyn Streich). The baby weighed 6 pounds, 15 ounces. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Streich of Murdock are the grandparents. Baby's name is Leslie Lloyd. Dr. and Mrs. Russell Gorthy also have a new daughter born Jan. 2. This makes three daughters for them. They are of Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kitzell and family of Paros visited his sister and family, the George Hiesing, for their usual holiday get together.

Visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilken, was Wayne Wilken, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edna Wilken. From here he went to Hitchcock, So. Dak.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Engelking returned on Thursday, Dec. 31 from a 10-day visit with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Ward and family at New Albany, Indiana. It rained most of the time they were there. They also visited Mrs. Ernest Baker at Bloomington, Ill., whose late husband was minister at the Elmwood Christian church about 25 years ago. There was some snow from St. Joseph, Mo., but the first ice on the pavement was west of Union.

The Westside Rooters 4-H club met Dec. 29 at the home of Sarah Albert. Election of officers was held with the following results: President, Sarah Albert; vice president, Myron Hollenbeck; Secretary, Marie Rosenow; reporter, Arion Hollenbeck.

Doald Predenburg is the leader. He passed out new material.

The January meeting is to be at the home of Theron Bornemier. Games were played. Mrs. Albers and Sarah served refreshment. Arion Hollenbeck, reporter.

The Cass County Christian Fellowship Association held their regular meeting at the Elmwood Methodist church, Jan. 3. There was a very fine attendance but the speaker did not arrive, supposedly because of the treacherous roads, which proved to be the case. The speaker was Pastor Everett Reynolds of Lincoln. Greenwood won the banner. A social hour was enjoyed after the meeting. Next meeting will be at Murdock E.U.B.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Soucek spent Christmas with his mother, Mrs. Minnie Soucek at Dewese, Nebr.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Schomaker had most of their children and grandchildren home for Christmas. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Leo Carey and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Schomaker of Plattsmouth, the Raymond Schomakers of Council Bluffs, the Earl Westfall family of Lincoln. The Vic Schomaker family are still on their trip to California.

F. C. Ebinger, minister of the E.U.B. church here, is still in the hospital in Lincoln with an infected knee which has been painful and not improving so far.

As a gesture of getting better acquainted the James W. Hansen, pastor of the Methodist church, and Mrs. Hansen held open house Sunday afternoon. In spite of the cold weather and slick roads, there was a good attendance. A number of people had not seen their remodeled kitchen either. A number of the girls assisted with the serving.

The Hill Ratliff family took his mother home to Auburn on Sunday and on account of the bad roads, did not get home until Tuesday. Mr. Ratliff was spending Christmas here with her son and family.

Mrs. Grace Brooks of Chappel, Nebr. visited her sister, Mrs. Belle Coakley and her brother Herbert Hulish, Friday until Sunday. She had visited her children at Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Thomas (former Elmwood people) went out to San Diego, Cal. to spend Christmas with their son and family. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Thomas and little Connie. Mrs. Thomas was formerly Sharon Adams. The other son of Glenn Thomas, John, is also in California. Dick is in the service at present.

The Grocery Store formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fiedler was sold to Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Laughlin and beginning with January 1st is being operated by the new owners.

A former Elmwood man, Mr. Boone Willet of Livingston, Montana, died at Albany, Ore. He was 79 years of age. His funeral services were held in the Methodist church Monday, January 4th. His nephews, Earl of Elmwood and Virgil Miller of Nebr. City are his sole heirs.

The Town Kensington held their regular meeting Dec. 31 at the home of Mrs. Ruth Manning. There were 10 present. Games were played. It was voted to give $3.00 to the March of Dimes. All enjoyed the covered dish luncheon.

Mrs. Amos March of Laramie, Wyoming came New Years day to be with her mother, Mrs. Laura Sutherland for a few days. Ed Hall was not so well for a while but is better and improving right along.

Mr. Pester's father, Mr. James Kucera of Prague, Nebr., spent the holidays visiting the Pester family.

Peru President Alumni Speaker

PERU — Graduates and former students of Peru State Teachers College in the Omaha and Lincoln areas will hold dinner meetings in January. Dr. Neal S. Gomon, president of the college will be speaker for both meetings.

The Peru State president will give observations on his recent October tour of the Soviet Union and tell of recent developments on the Campus of a Thousand Oaks.

The Omaha meeting, scheduled for Saturday, January 16, 1960, at 6:30 p.m. in the Birchwood Club, 2582 Redick, will be in charge of Jack Hallstrom, 5048 Bedford, Omaha.

For the Lincoln event, Saturday, January 30, 1960, at 6:30 p.m. at Cotner Terrace, Mrs. C. M. Hannan, 5608 Hartley, is in charge of reservations.
