Dr. Ryan Speaks To Central PTA

Central P-TA members met Jan. 4 in the cafeteria for their regular monthly meeting, presided Les Hutchinson presiding.

The boys quartet of the Plattsmouth High School sang a selection enjoyed by those present. Tom Smith, Albert Wetenkamp, Larry Toothaker and Tim Fischer are quartet members. They were accompanied at the piano by Eileen Porter.

This was followed by a chalk talk and slides by Dr. W. V. Ryan on "care of the teeth."

During the business meeting that followed reports were heard from committee chairman. The clothing bank reported further funds were needed for clothing unobtainable through solicitation. A plea was made for more clothing and money, and also help with the repairing of the items.

A thank you note was read from Central Teachers in recognition of the Christmas Trees for the school enjoyed during the holidays.

The second grade won the attendance banner.

A silent auction was held after the meeting. Proceeds to go toward a PTA project.

Teachers of the school served cookies and coffee from a decorated table depicting the New Year.
