Interior of Museum Here Nearly Done

The Cass County Historical Society met for luncheon at Mack's Kitchen Jan. 27. In spite of icy streets, 15 members were present.

Mrs. Virgil Perry, newly-elected president, conducted the first meeting of 1960. Correspondence was read from Mrs. C. S. Hirsch, Louisville, Mrs. Henry Knaup, Weeping Water, Dr. John Gilmore of California, and Mrs. Ivan Balfour, in California at present.

The Society voted to have memorial cards printed for the convenience of persons wishing to make memorial contributions to the museum.

Dale Bowman, reporting for the building committee, said the exterior of the museum is practically completed. The stone front was made possible by the gift of native limestone from the Nebraska Limestone Producers Association, represented by Jerry Biting, and by Roy Sharp, who hauled this stone without charge from the Hopper Quarries in Weeping Water. The metal framework of the cornerstone was likewise contributed by the W. E. Cady Co., through Warren Rhylander.

The interior of the building is also progressing. The furnace is installed, and the plumbing roughed in. Since no sewer was found to exist behind the museum, G. G. Griffin and H. F. Hinz of the Cass Theater have permitted the museum plumbing to be connected to the theater sewer. A. C. Finney of Murray donated 2 1/2 days work.

The partition for the working area is also partially constructed.

The president was authorized to appoint a committee for the cornerstone laying, which will take place in early spring.

Dale Bowman was re-elected to the board of directors, which is a rotating five-member board, with one member's term expiring each year.

The Society was made happy by the reading of a list of new memberships, including a number of life memberships. These new members are:

Rotary Club, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Schneider, Plattsmouth State Bank, Robert Cappell; Memorial for Mrs. Josephine Ulrich.

Pinocchio Club, Mrs. P. A. Hild, Mrs. Philip Born, Mrs. Henry Starkjohn, Mrs. Wm. Ofé, Mrs. Elizabeth Stoehr, Mrs. Joseph Bieri, Miss Sophia Kraeger, Mrs. Anna Gansmeyer, Mrs. James Worsham, Mrs. Henry Engelkemier.

Memorial for H. M. Soennichsen, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wurga, Arthur Wurga, Dr. and Mrs. P. Heineman, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor and daughter Reeda, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor and son Scott, Mrs. Edith Vandervoort of California, Dora Fricke, and Nagy Brothers of Omaha

The Journal Want Ads Pay

Most merchants will go to great lengths to please a customer but the height of something or other was reached at this office last week when Chris Bullin of Soemlichsen's stopped in to pick up a package lost by a customer.

It all happened when a party found a box containing a pair of ladies shoes and a pair of overshoes on the streets of Plattsmouth and brought them to The Journal office, suggested running this ad in the "Want Ads".

FOUND — On Main Street — box containing ladies brown-high heeled shoes and overshoes. Owner may have same by calling at the Journal and paying for this ad. 21-2c

This was done . . . and the box placed in the window. The ad appeared in Thursday's issue. That evening Mr. Bullin, sitting by the fire in his comfortable chair, was giving the day's edition a pretty thorough reading and ran across the ad.

Friday he came down to the office . . . identified the shoes and overshoes as coming from Soemlichsen's and remembered the purchaser.

Then . . . He paid for the ad . . . picked up the package and later, we are told, he called the lady and advised her that he had her merchandise.

It is just another proof that "Journal Ads Pay".
