

Joslyn Art Instructor Speaks To Woman's Civic Club Here

Members of the Plattsmouth Woman's Civic Club held their regular meeting Monday evening Feb. 8 at Consumers.

Preceding the business meeting, Mrs. Isabella Threlkeld, Instructor at Joslyn Art Museum in Omaha, presented a program "Elements of Art" and taking the members on a tour of the museum by way of colored slides.

Following the program Mrs. Ruback, president, conducted the business meeting, opening with the pledge to the flag and a silent prayer.

The All State Music Contest was discussed and tabled until next meeting. The fee this year has been raised to $90. Last year the club sponsored two half scholarships to All State.

The schools are to be contacted to see if there are any pupils interested in trying for a district scholarship.

State convention is to be held in Lincoln at the cornhusker Hotel March 28-30.

A letter was read from the Children's Memorial Hospital asking the club to decide on a project for their bazaar next fall.

Miss Maxine Cloyd reported a book purchased for the library "Best Plays of 1959." A plaque will be placed in the front of the book with the name of the club.

Miss Naomi Day and Mrs. Don Warg explained the program of the "Lions Club" Eye Bank. They distributed pamphlets and applications for the club members.

A donation to the Historical Society is to be made. Miss Cloyd is to report on this at the next meeting.

A report was given by the nominating committee, election of officers will be held at the March meeting.

Mrs. Hugh Stander, Jr., announced there were several scholarship loans available. All materials have been sent to the schools and is available to any student interested.

Refreshments were served by the committee from a beautiful table decorated in a valentine theme by the committee, Mrs. James McMillan, Mrs. Clark Finney, Mrs. Leonard John, Mrs. James Dody.

Mrs. Clark Finney, Fine Arts chairman, had a display of art from the Public Schools. The entries will be judged and the winners sent to the District Contest, the club members were very impressed with the large display.
