Happy Family Circle

The world is heavily populated with individuals who would do "great things" if they had fine positions or plenty of money. However, the world has very few men or women who are striving to do the little things in life in a manner that befits the doing of the greater things.

There is much talk today, for example, about the value of family life. What do the average father and mother, in this day, do for the benefit of family life? For that matter, what contribution does the young son, or the young daughter, feel impelled to make in developing a happy family circle that, in too many instances, is but a theory?

Happy family life is a cooperative affair. It does not depend on father or mother, or son or daughter, alone. Unless all work for the common good, unless all members of the family try to be unselfish as possible, then there can be no completely happy family circle. But is it worth thinking about and working for. What are you going to do about it?

Down Memory Lane

For some time there has been agitation over the matter of erection of a new public school building at the high school campus, one that would replace the Central building, which structure has been in service since 1876. The matter of issuance of bonds in the sum of $35,000 will be placed before the voters in the city election, April 2. The issuance of the bonds is made dependant on securing WPA aid for the erection of the building as a government project—Plattsmouth high basket-

How Many Vets in Nebraska? 1960 Census May Give Answer

By Melvin Paul
Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association LINCOLN—How many Nebraskans now living in the state have had military service? State Director of Veterans Affairs Louis R. Eby says there is no accurate head count.

Eby, who since July 1, 1947 has been chief of the Veterans Affairs Department of state government, says that is one of the first questions he asked upon coming into office.

"It hasn't been answered yet," he says.

Eby says there's a ray of hope, however. He commented he understands the government will try to ascertain the number of veterans in Nebraska during the 1960 census.

It hasn't been done in a recent census, at least by the government, Eby said.

The Veterans Administration in Washington estimates there now are 178,000 veterans in Nebraska who served during a period of war.

That breakdown has 115,000 who were in service during World War II, Eby says, 21,000 during World War I, and 41,000 for the Korean conflict. The latter total includes only those who had had no World War II service, he added. There also are 1,000 veterans listed in an "other" category, making a total of 178,000.

Eby says he doesn't know what the "other" category includes, unless it might be Spanish American veterans and those not classified as serving during a period of war.

The total of 178,000 is 13.4 percent of the population of Nebraska, the director continued. Eby noted that in 1955 he asked the legislature to try to take a census by having the information put on tax blanks.

Lawmakers approved this but the blanks on personal tax forms were not filled in, he said, and the project fizzled.

There is no major problem because there isn't an accurate total of veterans in Nebraska, Eby said, but it would be handy from an administrative viewpoint.

"If you had a bank, wouldn't you want to know how much money you had?" he asked.

Eby estimates there still are 242 Spanish War Veterans living in Nebraska, whose average age is 83. The maximum number of the veterans of that war of 1898 was about 2,000, he added.

World War I veterans are dying at the rate of about 1,000 per year, he said.

Easter Seal Fund Drive Scheduled

Easter Seal Letters will be placed in the mail March 17th by the Cass County Committee of the Nebraska Society of Crippled Children in their Annual Easter Campaign for funds.

Two unique designs featuring crippled children and therapist combined with the appeal "Please Help Us!" are announced as the 1960 Easter Seals that will be delivered to 40 million American homes during the 1960 Easter Seal Campaign, March 17 to Easter Sunday, April 17.

The lively stylized Easter Seals are colored in gay shades of red and blue and are of commemorative stamp size. The annual Easter Seal appeal is sponsored by the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults and its affiliates in all 50 states, District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico.

Seals and the campaign poster were designed by Mrs. Ginny Linville Winter, talented young Chicago artist. Mrs. Winter, who received her training at the American Academy, Art Institute of Chicago and the Illinois Institute of Design, spent four years with the J. Walter Thompson agency and is now associated with the Stevens-Gross Studios, Chicago. She has become a free-lance artist and specialized in drawing children and young mothers.

One Easter Seal design features a crippled girl and boy holding hands of a therapist. It is symbolic of the care and treatment rehabilitation services given crippled children by skilled professional workers at Easter Seal centers across the nation.

The other Seal incorporates two other children with stylized lily symbol, official insignia of Easter Seal Societies. Central panel of the sheet of Easter Seals is a reproduction of the campaign poster featuring the same child figures.

Cass County Seal Chairman is Mrs. Evelyn Franke of Cedar Creek.

The four presidents of the State Teachers Colleges are going to have bigger paychecks this summer.

The State Normal Board, which governs the institutions, voted to boost the pay of the presidents by $2,500 per year, from the current $12,000 to $14,500.

Hikes will go to Herbert Cushing of Kearney, Barton Kline of Chadron, William Brandenburg of Wayne and Neal Gomom of Peru, all doctors of education.

In addition, Cushing and Kline get $1,500 per year off-campus housing. Brandenburg and Gomom have housing facilities provided by the state.

The new pay scales become effective July 1.

The board also approved pay increases of $100 to $300 for some faculty and administrative personnel, depending upon responsibilities and qualifications.

Filing Deadlines
One filing deadline for the May 10 primary election has passed and another is drawing near.

The March 1 date was for incumbent office holders who wanted to seek another post.

On March 11 at 5 p.m. Secretary of State Frank Marsh will shut his office door to all filings for the May primary election.

The tempo of filings has picked up and is expected to remain heavy, with the biggest bunch anticipated shortly before the deadline March 11.

Widow of Veteran May Be Eligible For a Pension

Friends and advisors of women who have recently been widowed by the death of their war veteran husband should tactfully arrange for the widow to investigate pension possibilities, Mr. A. H. Duxbury, Manager of the Lincoln Regional Office, said today.

By filing pension application before June 30, 1960, widows, and the dependent children of deceased veterans, may take advantage of the provisions of the present pension law or have a choice of the provisions of the new pension law which takes effect July 1, 1960.

Applications filed after June 30, 1960, allow no choice and pensions will be paid to eligible applicants under the new pension plan only.

Ted Nelson, Extension farm economist at the University of Nebraska. Corn farmers who analyzed their 1959 operations found net returns per acre were squeezed in spite of favorable weather conditions and yields, Nelson noted.

A popular and effective method of cutting unit costs in recent years has been extensive use of fertilizer to increase production per acre.

While stressing that this will continue to be an important factor, Nelson urged farmers who are getting diminished returns from fertilizer to use to take a good look at minimum tillage as the next possible means of reducing costs.

Results of several trials indicate that yields comparable to those from conventional tillage practices are possible with minimum tillage.

In addition to cutting per-bushel costs of raising corn, minimum tillage can release labor in critical periods, Nelson continued. This makes additional acreage and/or larger livestock enterprises possible without additional manpower.
