

Louisville High Wins SE Trophy For Dramatics

LOUISVILLE (Special) — Louisville High School won the Southeast Six trophy for Dramatics at the Waverly meet with a total of 13 points.

High point winner for the school was Janean Hubbell with eight points out of a possible nine in three activities. Janean was rated superior in extemporaneous speaking and interpretative public address and excellent in discussion.

Other students who rated superior were: John Davis, with an original speech; James Hendrix in news commentary and Robert Weismeth in discussion. Excellent ratings were given John Stohlmann, for reading in prose literature, Mary Mayfield and Mary Heil for reading in poetry.

Average ratings which earned a point apiece toward the trophy were gained by Volene Albert, Dorothy Christianson and Janice Hennings for prose readings; Kay Albert for interpre-
