

LONG WAY — The sign says the Gulf of Mexico is 608 miles from the Plattsmouth Boat Club's dock here. The Gulf is where the male half of the club's sanitary facilities may be, for the building appeared to be gone Monday when flood water receded enough to permit inspection (on muddy foot). The distaff facility is in right background.

Easter Is Symbol of Resurrection

Easter, the principal ecclesiastical event of the year, gets its name from Eostre, a Teutonic goddess, whose festival was celebrated in the Spring.

Her name was given to the Christian festival, as it was she, according to legend, who opened the portals of Valhalla to receive the White God and the Sun God, representing purity and light.

The history of Easter, which is a symbol of the Resurrection to us, is intertwined with many religious customs and observances dating back hundreds of years and before the time of Jesus Christ.

However, Christians have utilized various customs and traditions to create and color this observance in the real spirit of Jesus' rebirth.

The Easter egg, for example, became to be associated with Easter because eggs were for-bidden to be eaten during Lent and on Easter Sunday they were traditionally served.

The Easter egg, though, had dated back to the Egyptians and Persians, and also the Greeks and Romans, who ate eggs annually in their Spring festivals. Eggs have long since been connected with new life, as was the rabbit, a most prolific animal, and the rabbit was eventually to be used, in children's tales, as another emblem of fertility or new life.

Jesus arose from the dead on the first day of the week, and Gentile Christians have held ever since that Easter should be observed on Sunday.

Jewish Christians for many years observed the day on the date of the Passover regardless of whether it was Sunday or not.

In any event, it is appropriate that Easter comes in the Spring, when the renewal of life is so apparent about us all.

Sunrise services in our churches — an observance of recent origin in most churches — symbolizes the Resurrection at sunrise.

Today this religious practice is observed in practically all of the churches as a symbol of hope, inspiration and faith.

2 from Here Offered UN Frosh Grants

Freshman scholarships, totaling $22,000 have been offered to 73 Nebraska high school seniors by the Committee on General Scholarship Awards of the University of Nebraska.

Those receiving the freshman scholarships from Plattsmouth are Larry Christenson and Charles Toman.

The 73 grants, varying from $240 to $700, are offered on the basis of scholastic excellence with the amount of each reflecting the result of a thorough analysis of the family financial resources available to the student.

Mrs. Jane Wendorf, assistant for Scholarship Awards, said 800 high school seniors applied for grants which are independent of the University Regents' scholarship program. The committee will have a small number of additional freshman scholarships to offer as well as a few other University agencies such as the Colleges of Agriculture and Engineering and Architecture.

In a further effort to help outstanding students of limited financial means with their plans for college, the University has expanded its work scholarship program. Under it some 400 part-time jobs will be available to freshmen next fall.
