Miss Miller, Larry Curnes Wed At Elmwood Methodist Church

The Elmwood Methodist church was the setting for the April wedding of Miss Raylene Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Miller, and Larry Curnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Curnes of Falls City.

The bride wore a gown of re-embroidered lace and tulle with a scalloped square neckline edged in tiny seed pearls and iridescents. The full floor-length skirt fashioned of silk organza over tulle featured appliques of re-embroidered lace. Her veil of silk draped from a half cap featuring designs of pearls. She carried American Beauty roses and lily of the valley on a white lace Bible.

Her maid of honor was her sister, Mardelle Miller. Mrs. Roger Killion of Auburn was matron of honor. Miss Karen Hansen of Elmwood and Miss Kathy Streich of Murdock were bridesmaids. The attendants wore frocks of silk organza in azure blue. The bodice featured Sabrina necklines V'd at the back. Softly crushed cummerbunds of blue circled the waists. Lines fashioning back bows and streamers. The deeply hemmed bouffant skirts were of ballerina length. They wore bandeaux of azure blue organza bows and leaves with matching face veils and carried blue and white Chrysanthemums.

Steven Jones of Falls City was ring bearer, and Dee Ann Fentiman of Unadilla was flower girl. Lighting the candles were Tyrette Fentiman of Unadilla and Norma Curnes, Falls City, the groom's sister. The flower girl and candelights wore frocks similar to the attendants. Dan Fentiman of Unadilla acted as junior groomsman. Mrs. Loy Jones of Falls City presided at the guest book.

Jerry Foster of Falls City was best man. Serving as ushers were Richard Carlson of Falls City, Roger Killion of Auburn and Erik Mortensen of Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Curnes are living at Peru where both attend college.

Mrs. Curnes was honored at a shower at the Christian Church the evening of April 26. Mrs. Eldon Mendenhall, Mrs. Skyle Millard and Mrs. LaMoine Spohn were hostesses in the beautifully decorated church parlors. A complete unit of decoration surrounded the gift table and shared its center of interest with the lovely serving table. Many games and stunts entertained everyone. A most delicious lunch was served after the bride opened her many lovely gifts. Out of town guests were Mrs. Bernard Curnes and Norma and Mrs. Loy Jones of Falls City, Mrs. Gene Parsons of Lincoln, Mrs. Ray Fentiman and Mrs. Glen Fentiman of Unadilla, and Mrs. Charles Gonzales of Iowa.

Mrs. Paul Eveland, Mrs. Ted Hall and Mrs. LeRoy Cook of Tekamah entertained at Mrs. Eveland's home in honor of the bride. The evening passed too quickly as guests visited and embroidered a set of tea towels for the bride. Angel pie and coffee were served after the attractively wrapped gifts were opened.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fentiman entertained the complete bridal party. Several bouquets of blue and white gladioli were used in the living room and as table decorations. Lunch was served from the dining room which everyone enjoyed along with much conversation. Out of town guests were: Mr. Larry Curnes, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Curnes and Norma, Mrs. Loy Jones, Mr. Jerry Foster and Mr. Carlson all of Falls City, Miss Kathy Streich of Murdock, Miss Karen Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Killion of Auburn, and Mr. Mortensen of Omaha.
