Mrs. Donald F. Pechacek
Miss Joann F. Koubek Weds Mr. Donald Francis Pechacek

The Holy Rosary Church here was the scene Saturday of the wedding of Miss Joann Frances Koubek and Mr. Donald Francis Pechacek.
Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Koubek of Plattsmouth and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pechacek, 6102 South 20th, Omaha.
The Reverend Walter Banak officiated at the nine in the morning ceremony in the presence of 200 guests. White and pink gladiolas decorated the altar of the church.
Holy Rosary Choir sang the nuptial high mass, with Mrs. Vincent Fliny as accompanist. Mrs. Eugene Hula sang "Ave Maria" for offertory. "Pans Angelicus" for Communion and "Mother Beloved" for presentation of flowers to the Blessed Mother.
The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a white floor length gown of chamilly lace featuring a Sabrina neckline delicately accented with tiny pearls and sequins; sleeves of hand clipped lace tapered to a point at the wrist. The lace bodice with princess style waistline tapered into a V at the back which was set off by a butterfly bow of satin from which the full skirt of misty tulle fell into a chapel train, re-embroidered with lace motifs. Her fingertip veil of nylon tulle was caught by a pearl seeded crown. She carried a white prayer book adorned with a white orchid and white satin streamers.
Miss Marilyn Koubek was maid of honor. She was gown in a soft yellow silk organza, ballerina length with lace trim; a scoop neckline and brief sleeves. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations set in bows of satin and tulle of yellow. A flowered covered clip hat with halo veil, also in yellow, completed her costume.
The bride's other attendants were Mrs. Kenneth Meisinger, Mrs. David Frans and Miss Margaret Svoboda. They were gown in alike frocks, fashioned as the maid of honor, in blue, pink and green. Each carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations set in bows of satin and tulle of corresponding color. Flowered headpieces with veils also matched their gowns.
Robert Kubin of Omaha was best man. Ramon Koubek, David Frans and Bill Novak ushered.
White and pink gladiolas decorated the church parlors for the breakfast held immediately following the ceremony. Assisting were Mrs. Ramon Koubek, Mrs. Robert Kubin, Miss Alice Hoffman and Mrs. Charles Warga Jr.
Wedding reception was held in the evening at the Bohemian National Hall in Omaha at 8 p.m. featuring the orchestra of Jim Havorka.
For her wedding trip to the southern states the bride chose a navy blue sheath dress with white accessories. After their return they will make their home at 319 Avenue A, Plattsmouth.
The bride is a graduate of St. Johns' Parochial and the Plattsmouth Schools and is employed in Omaha.
Mr. Pechacek attended Madison Grade School and is a graduate of South High School and is employed in Omaha.

Bridal Shower For Carol Lutz
NEHAWKA (Special)—Carol Lutz of Nebraska City was the honoree at a bridal shower Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Emil Lutz near Avoca.
The bride's colors, green and white were used in the decorations. Games entertained the guests. The bride received many gifts.
She was presented an orchid by the hostesses, Mrs. Emil Lutz, Paul Solko, Robert Lehner, Mervin Alvis, Lawrence Neukirch and Richard Lutz.
Fifty guests were present from Omaha, Kansas City, Perceival and Hamburg, Iowa; Sterling Nebraska City and Avoca.
Miss Lutz and Lee Parkison of Perceival will be married June 4 at St. Mary's Catholic church at Nebraska City.

Nehawka 4-H News
NEHAWKA (Special) — The Cass County Homemakers 4-H Club discussed 4-H junior leaders training camp, when they met May 4 at the Nehawka school. Last year's membership certificates were passed out along some of the record books. Evelyn Wolph, leader, served refreshments. — reporter, Mary Lindsey.

The small son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burdick of Wichita, Kan., remains in a coma and is on the critical list at a Wichita Hospital. He was involved in a car-tricycle accident several weeks ago. A few weeks ago in the same neighborhood two boys, 14, were killed while riding bicycles. One of the latter victims was a nephew of Walter Halth and Mrs. Palmer Lloyd of Eagle. The Eagle folks attended the funeral and burial at Johnson, Neb., the former residence of the Kansas family.
Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Umland and family of Kansas City visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rockenbach last weekend. Their daughter, Yvonne Umland, and fiancé, Dan Jasse, both of Lincoln, were dinner guests Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Umland of Kansas City, formerly of Eagle and Lincoln, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Yvonne of Lincoln, to Daniel Jasse, also of Lincoln.
Messers Ray Wall and Harold Wull motored to the Ayrshire 'cattle Convention at St. Paul, Minn., in the latter's car last Friday. They returned home by way of Winterset and Lorimor, Iowa, and visited the Voyal Wulf families formerly of Eagle.
Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lutjemeier of Udell and Mrs. Lutjemeier's sister, Mrs. Esther Peterson of Lincoln, visited Mr. Lutjemeier's mother, Mrs. Magge Lutjemeier, residing at her daughter's home, the Herman Folken's Sunday evening. Mrs. Lutjemeier has been ill and has been receiving medical attention for a foot and a diabetic condition.
Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wulf and family of Papillion visited his father, Henry Wulf, last Saturday and Sunday.
Mrs. Ben Muenchau of near Avo was a dinner guest at the home of her son, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Muenchau on Mother's Day.
Mrs. Wesley Lowell had the misfortune to suffer a foot injury when struck by a piece of copper wire thrown by the lawn mower Mr. Lowell was operating.
The Orville Muenchau family of Sioux City, Iowa, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Muenchau last weekend Sunday, a family dinner was enjoyed by "eating out" at Lincoln. The Keith Muenchaus of Eagle were also present.
Mrs. Harold Oldfield and Mrs. Robert Phillips entertained eight ladies at Mrs. Oldfield's home last Thursday evening with a pinocchio party.
Mrs. Fred Muenchau has been undergoing medical attention.
Mr. and Mrs. John Fischer have received word from her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Frisbee of Seattle, Wash., that they

Non-Resident Hunters Spend Million in State
LINCOLN — Non-resident bird hunters spent some 51,000 days and $1 million in Nebraska last season, according to a recent report of the Game Commission.
Incomplete returns from a non-resident hunter survey indicate that some 9,000-plus out-of-staters came to Nebraska during the 1959 hunting season. Each spent an average $115 in the state.
Non-residents accounted for 7 per cent of the pheasant kill, 10 per cent of the bobwhite quail kill, and 5 per cent of the grouse kill.

Poem Says 'Thanks' for Queen Honor
Following is a poem by Mrs. Delta Newton, winner of the Mothers Day Queen for a Day Contest sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce:
A Thank You
I feel so unworthy
Of this honor and this Crown
But I am proud that I live
In this wonderful town
This Chamber of Commerce
Is the Best in the land
It is composed of Eager minds
And industrious hands.
Many thanks to the committee
Who ever they are
For their crown I am asking
For an extra big star
The merchants are indeed
A generous lot
You would readily agree
If you'd see what I got
Each gift I received
Is a valuable treasure
And is truly appreciated
Far beyond any measure
"God guide, Bless and love you
Each single one
Is the most ardent wish
Of Mrs. Delta Newton

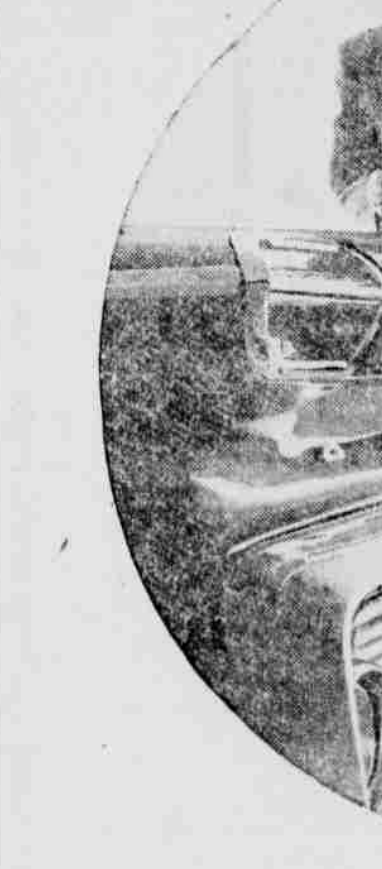

will come to Nebraska for the Elmwood Alumni Banquet and the Memorial Day services at Wabash, Murdock and Elmwood. They leave May 19.
Mr. and Mrs. Billy Stillwell and daughters Gail and Beth of Omaha spent Mother's Day at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Seeley Stillwell and Georgia Sunday.
The Mother's Day Night Talent program at the Eagle Methodist Church was well attended Sunday evening. The Senior MYF was in charge of the program.
The Eagle Alumni banquet will be a smorgasbord May 27 at 6:30 p. m., served by a Lincoln caterer. A program is planned.
