WEeping WATER (Special) — Miss Rose Mary Von Dollen, daughter of Mrs. Cecilia Von Dollen and Robert Rhodes, son of Mrs. Martha Rhodes of Weeping Water, was married at Our Lady Queen of Apostles Church in Council Bluffs, Iowa, June 4.

Rev. John F. Hart performed the nuptial mass ceremony. The church hall was decorated as a garden scene depicting fountain, hanging hearts, doves, floating candles and flowers. Blue and white carnations and pompons decorated the altar.

The program of nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Mary Schwenk, grandaunt of the bride and Mrs. Vernon Conzenius, Joe Moser was organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Bernard Bigley, wore a gown of Chantilly lace designed over white satin and worn over a stiffened petticoat of lace ruffles, featured a Sabrina neckline and bodice highlighted with pearls in heart designs, tear drops and iridescent sequins, and the traditional tapered sleeves ending in a point over the wrists.

The bride wore a crystal necklace, a gift of the groom. The flowing front panel of lace was joined in the center by a diamond motif with accents of seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The back panel of the gown was fashioned with tiers of lace cascading to an aisle wide chapel length train.

The crown was made of jewels consisting of seed pearls, iridescent sequins, tear drops, opalescent lace medallions, trimmed with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. She carried a cascade of white roses edged in blue with a detachable rose corsage, stephanotis and white streamers caught with miniature flowers and ivy.

Mrs. Charles Zager of Omaha, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Rae Ellen Rhodes of Weeping Water, sister of the groom, Miss Patricia Holmes and Miss Louise Sukup of Omaha. They wore four alternating shades of blue chiffon gowns with shirred bodice and full waltz length skirts. White net gauntlets caught with a blue bow at the wrist and blue chiffon picture hats and two blue and white roses completed the costumes.

Flower girls were Carol Ann Hilliard and Sue Marie Hilliard, nieces of the bride. John Hilliard, dressed in a white tuxedo, was the ring bearer.

Philip Rhodes of Weeping Water was the best man. Groomsman were Jack Rhodes of Weeping Water, Charles Zager of Omaha and Kenneth Stratton of Weeping Water. Seating the guests were Mitchell Hilliard of Council Bluffs, Iowa and Paul Zager of Omaha.

The bride's mother chose a light blue lace dress with white accessories. The groom's mother was attired in a navy blue dress with white accessories. Both wore white orchid corsages.

A wedding breakfast and reception was held in the church hall.

Mrs. Rhodes is a graduate of Abraham Lincoln high school in Council Bluffs in 1954 and is employed at Western Electric at Millard.

Mr. Rhodes is a 1954 graduate of the Weeping Water high school and is employed by the Nebraska Highway Patrol.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes will make their home in Kearney following a wedding trip to Colorado.
