

Auxiliary to Legion Installs Officers at June Meeting

The American Legion Auxiliary to the Hugh J. Kearns Post No. 56 held its regular meeting June 23 in the 40 and 8 Club Rooms. President Mrs. Lloyd Fitch presided.

Membership report showed 143 members enrolled for 1960. This exceeds the quota by 19 members and is the largest membership enrolled for several years.

The president introduced and welcomed Mrs. Max Pennabaker as a new member and Mrs. Grace Deles Dernier as a guest.

Mrs. Oliver Schiber gave the annual rehabilitation report, it being announced that the Plattsmouth unit would sponsor a party at the Veterans Hospital Aug. 24. This will be a birthday party for all the veterans in the hospital having a birthday that month.

Communications were read and acted upon. A request was read asking for a representative of the Auxiliary to attend a meeting of the Bloodmobile representatives June 24. Mrs. Sophia Wolever volunteered to attend.

Thank-you notes were read from Mary Nelson, Sophia Wolever and Mrs. Ethel Strabel.

Sandra Spangler, who was chosen by the Auxiliary to attend Girls State, sent a note of thanks for the opportunity the Auxiliary had given her to attend. She will report on her experiences at a later Auxiliary meeting.

Mrs. Fitch thanked the members for helping prepare the crosses for the veterans graves for Memorial Day, also for their assistance at the services at the cemetery.

Members voted to buy a book to be used for the "Book of Prayers."

The picture of Mollie Gobelman presenting the Books of Auxiliary Star papers will be sent to the Department to be printed in the Department Star.

An impressive "Draping of the Charter" ceremony was given by Mrs. Fitch and Mrs. Harry Porter, chaplain, for Florence Persinger, an Auxiliary member who died recently. An Auxiliary marker will be placed on her grave.

The nominating committee submitted the following names for election of officers, and they were elected:

President, Miss Mildred Hall; 1st vice president, Mrs. Clarence Akeson; 2nd vice president, Mrs. John Kalasek; secretary, Mrs. Charles E. Ault; treasurer, er, Mrs. Merlin Jochimsen; historian, Mrs. Harry Porter; chaplain, Mrs. Lucille Gaines; sergeant-at-arms, Mrs. James Pittman; color bearer, Mrs. James Drennen.

Executive committee: Mrs. Lloyd Fitch, 2 years; and Mrs. Eugene Vroman and Mrs. John Schultz, each one year.

The newly elected officers were installed by Mrs. Sophia Wolever who also presented the past president's pin to Mrs. Fitch.

Mrs. Fitch presented Mrs. Wolever a gift as installing officer in behalf of the Auxiliary. Mrs. Fitch presented all her officers and chairmen with a gift. She expressed her thanks to all the members for their cooperation and help in the past year and said she had enjoyed being president.

New president Mildred Hall asked for cooperation of all the members and thanked them for electing her president.

The chaplain read the Prayer for Peace and the colors were retired.

Mrs. Harry Porter won the door prize.

Refreshments were served by the committee, Mes. Glen McClure, Oliver Schiber, A. C. McLean, Raymond Larson, Clarence Fulton, Arnold Buechler and Roy Cavender.

Elaine Brockhoff, Kenneth Hild Wed at Avoca Lutheran Church

AVOCA (Special) — The marriage of Miss Elaine Brockhoff and Kenneth Hild was solemnized at First Lutheran Church June 16 in a double-ring ceremony. Rev. Luther Sherer officiated.

Mrs. Maynard Kuening was at the organ and Miss Paula Ludwig was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of hand clipped chantilly lace and tulle. Natural scalloped of the gown traced with iridescent sequins and pearls framed the lace basque waist. The gown was designed with long sleeves.

The bouffant skirt of lace featured an inset of tulle with pearl and sequin-embroidered lace applique and a brief scalloped back peplum above the cascade of alternating ruffles of lace and tulle. A plateau of pearl trimmed lace held her veil of silk illusion and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Harvey Brockhoff, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Marie Hesper and Marilyn Kressley.

Harvey Brockhoff, brother of the bride was best man and Leo Bradford, Lincoln, Wesley Bradford and Wesley Damme of Cook were groomsmen.

Linda Fallers, Kay Bassett were candlelighters. Ricky Lynn Brockhoff, ringbearer and Joni Bradford, flowergirl.

Seating the guests were Ralph Brockhoff, Elmwood, Henry Kirchoff Jr. of Oteo, Glenn Floerke of Lincoln and Roger Weber of Cook. Mrs. Merle Sorensen had the guest book.

The reception was held in the church.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brockhoff of Avoca and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hild, Cook.

The bride is a graduate of Avoca High School and has been employed in the State Department of Health, Lincoln. The groom is a graduate of Cook High School and is farming.

The couple is at home on a farm near Cook.
