Eagle Church Celebrates 60th Anniversary

EAGLE — Sunday, July 24, a capacity crowd gathered at Immanuel Lutheran Church, Eagle, to celebrate the 60th Anniversary of the congregation.
Pastor G. O. Keschull of Chester, Nebraska, who served Immanuel 1930-36, reminded the congregation of the "abundance of God's Blessings these 60 years, both material and spiritual," and encouraged it to "continue being a blessing by proclaiming the Unchanging Gospel."
A number of friends and former members had come from a distance to join in the service. The children of the Sunday School provided special music.
Most of the people remained to share a basket dinner at noon, and to visit and reminisce afterwards. Besides Pastor and Mrs. Keschull also Pastor and Mrs. R. Staehr, McCook, and Pastor and Mrs. D. F. Luebke, Walton, were present as former pastors of the congregation.
Letters were read also from former pastors: Albert Cholcher, Persia, Iowa; A. L. Kohtz, St. Paul, Neb.; and A. G. Ahlmann, Milwaukee. Of the eight men who founded the congregation in July 1900, two attended the service: Mr. R. C. Wenzel and Mr. Fred Wuif, both of Eagle; Mrs. Fred Wuif also attended.
Another veteran couple, still active in all congregational affairs, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schwegmann, transferred to this congregation nearly 55 years ago.
The Anniversary Committee in charge of arrangements consisted of Mr. and Mrs. George Kockenbach; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schwegmann, and Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Wuif.
The oldest member of the congregation, Mrs. Anna Headley of Eagle, 94 July 20, was not quite equal to attending on such a hot day. She did attend the previous Sunday.

GLEANINGS from our Heritage of Freedom

"What we obtain too cheap, we esteem too lightly. It would be strange indeed if so celestial an article as freedom should not be highly rated."
— Thomas Paine

Good friends like to get together over cool, sparkling glasses of beer. Beer is so refreshing and friendly. It is that festive touch that adds good cheer to a pleasant time. Enjoy it!
