

Tractor Savers' Terrace Building Set for Saturday

The Tractor Savers 4-H Club will have its achievement day Saturday, July 30, and built about 7,500 feet of new terraces on the Otto Peterleit farm west and north of here.

Annually, the club winds up its year's work with a practical demonstration of soil conservation.

Besides the terrace-building, the all-day event will include a tractor demonstration by area implement dealers.

Terracing will be started early in the morning and last most of the day. The public is invited.

The Peterleit farm is six miles west and 2½ north of Highway 66.

Plattsmouth PTA Representatives At Lincoln Clinic

"White House Conference Proposals was the theme of a clinic held in Lincoln under the joint sponsorship of the University of Nebraska Teachers College and the Nebraska Congress of Parents and Teacher.

Following a luncheon Dr. Paul Hanna, Professor of Education at Stanford University spoke on the need for a national commission on curriculum.

A panel made up of seven delegates to the 1960 White House Conference discussed proposals made by this conference. Included in these delegates were three teenagers who presented the recommendations of youth concerning problems that should receive attention in the coming decade.

Representing Plattsmouth PTA units at the meeting were Mrs. Tom Solomon, Mrs. Carl Tiekotter, Mrs. Harvey Bruns, Mrs. John Adkins, Mrs. Wayne Green, Mrs. George Toothaker and Capt. George Sarver.

John Fauquet To Enter Reserve Training at Wood

John Fauquet, son of Attorney and Mrs. Paul E. Fauquet, and graduate of the class of 1959 of the Plattsmouth high school, is completing his summer school work at the University of Nebraska today.

John is a member of the band of the Nebraska National guard at Lincoln and with the close of the summer school is preparing to attend the reserve army training camp at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., where he will receive his eight weeks of basic military training. On completion of the eight weeks he expects to be sent to Fort Ord, Calif., to complete the remainder of the six months course.

John expects to complete his military training in time to resume his studies at the University of Nebraska at the second semester.

2 Land Parcels Are Sold Here

Two parcels of land were sold at the Courthouse by Sheriff Tom Solomon on a sheriff's sale order.

Orval Kahler of Plattsmouth was high bidder on the Plattsmouth lots with his bid of $525.

The Plattsmouth Building and Loan Association was high bidder on the Nehawka property with their bid of $2,604.

Billy Stoehr, 12, Badly Injured in Fall from Horse

Billy Stoehr, 12 year old son of Mrs. Lucille Stoehr, was thrown off a horse Wednesday and was severely injured.

The lad was riding the horse when he dropped the reins, the horse stepping on the reins which frightened the animal, throwing the boy to the ground.

He was taken to Children's Memorial Hospital in Omaha room 201 where he is undergoing x-rays. He lay unconscious until this morning. It is learned he is suffering from severe head, neck and back injuries.

Sheri Cooper Honored
