Louis Herbster, Dies of Crash On Highway 73

Louis Herbster, 60, of Verdon, was fatally injured Wednesday night in a two truck crash two miles north of Falls City. He died Thursday morning at an Omaha hospital.

Herbster was driver of a mail truck which collided with a film transport truck driven by Neil Owens of Falls City.

Owens said the northbound mail truck jackknifed and the tractor swung into his lane as he approached in the opposite lane. He said he skidded 140 feet in an effort to avoid the collision. Owens escaped with a severe leg injury. Herbster never regained consciousness.

Mrs. Herbster, who was with her husband at the time of the accident, was hospitalized at Falls City.

Louis Herbster was a veteran in the star route service in southeast Nebraska. He was a cousin of Fred Herbster of this city. The Herbster family is one of the most prominent in Richardson county.

News Of Former Plattsmouth Boys

Mrs. Tessie Copenhaver has received word from her nephews stating that Ted Stokes of Omaha is now in New Orleans and going from there to Africa as a buyer for a fruit and vegetable company. He served in World War II as a Sergeant and has been employed by the fruit and vegetable company since his return from Japan. He drives in Stock Car Races in Council Bluffs, Iowa, many time a winner.

Donald G. Stokes has been made manager of the new American Bank at Anaheim, Calif. He also served his country, a sergeant in the Marines. He was made manager just recently for the banking firm.

Clifford Stokes is now teaching a class at University of Nebraska, and will teach as principal at Sidney again this coming term. He was chosen out of Peru School when the Brock Principal took ill, and served in that capacity 2 1/2 years.

The above Stokes brothers are sons of Esther Murdock Stokes and the late Guy L. Stokes. They were raised on a farm four miles south of Plattsmouth, and went to high school here.

Their former Plattsmouth friends will be pleased to learn of their business success.

2-Car Accident North of Here

Mrs. Betty J. Hall of Platts-mouth was taken to an Omaha hospital for check-up Sunday night and then returned home following a two-car accident north of Plattsmouth near the Oreadopolis Overpass.

Mrs. Hall was riding with her husband, Robert, and they were southbound down a grade when struck in the rear by a car driven by Joseph O. Pleasance, also of Plattsmouth.

The Pleasance car left the highway and ended up in the deep ditch between the lanes of traffic after ramming the Hall car twice in the rear, Sheriff Tom Solomon said.

In County Court today, Pleasance pleaded "guilty" to a charge of drunken driving, was fined $100 and costs and his driver's license was suspended six months.

Heils Win Trophy For Costumes

LOUISVILLE (Special) — Mr. and Mrs. Harold (Lucy) Heil won the first place trophy for being the best dressed couple in the annual Sioux Falls Horseless Carriage Club tour. The Heils, dressed in their early 20th century costumes and driving their 1915 Ford Speedster, were among some 50 old cars which made the 150 mile tour last weekend.

The tour consisted of going from Sioux Falls, So. Dakota to Pipestone, Minnesota the first day. They attended the Hiawatha Pageant there and then traveled to Madison, S. D. where they held their annual banquet. On Sunday morning they attended special church services at Madison with everyone dressed in their historical costumes. They then journeyed back to Sioux Falls where they disbanded.

"Lucy" stated that the old cars averaged about 25 miles an hour and gas mileage varied from six miles per gallon on a 1929 Packard to 30 miles per gallon on a 1914 Grant. The Caravan was accompanied by two state Patrolmen and the gas was furnished by the Mobile Oil Company. They had a very enjoyable trip.
