Visits Old Home After 40 Years

When Earl Troup of Plattsmouth took a trip to Custer County in western Nebraska recently it was quite an event. He hadn't been to his old home in 40 years.

Troup, 67, was born in Custer County in 1893. His family lived on the South Loup River in a sod house.

The house is still standing, Troup said, and he walked through the door as he used to 60-odd years ago.

He has 37 cousins living in that area.
