Mrs. Richard Todd
Phone 4914

The big news in Murray this week would be the reopening of school for the 1960-61 sessions.

Monday, the children, scrubbed and polished, wearing new clothes and broad grins seemed terribly pleased to be back among their friends and classmates.

Even the youngest group, the new kindergarten class (among them son Dan) appeared to be enjoying the brand new experience, though understandably a little nervous.

The grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marler, Larry, Diana and Donna Gilsdorf, who spent the summer vacation at the Marler home, left for a trip to Dakota with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gilsdorf of Lincoln who came for the children Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lancaster were expected home sometime this week, probably Wednesday, after a three-week vacation on the West Coast.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Irvine Nottley were Mrs. Mary Scull and son, Dale Davis. Mr. Davis just returned from England where he had been on duty with the Air Force for some time.

Young folks who attended the recent three-day 4-H camp at South Bend were David Morris, Roger Howard, Bill Spangler, Bill and Tom Schlichtemeier, Ralph Richter, Chris Spangler and Cathy Rice. Also attending, as counselor, was Mrs. Virginia Spangler.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Jose have been in Canada for two weeks vacation with relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Jose left Canada 10 years ago to make their home in Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard of Los Angeles, Calif., are spending their vacation with Mr. Howard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Howard.

Letters of congratulations are still being received by United Presbyterian Church here. The church recently celebrated its 100th birthday. Crede Harris, who will be 95 next month, is believed to have been the oldest person at the Centennial celebration.

Dr. John Gilmore and daughter Jo Ann of Santa Monica, Calif., are visiting friends in Murray and the Murray area.

Mrs. Ed Howard, Roger and Linda recently visited Mrs. Howard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lee of Dwight, Kan.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marler Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lloyd of Avoca. Mr. and Mrs. Marion Worthan were in Avoca on business on Monday morning.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Worthan were Mr. and Mrs. Gomer Worthan and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ehlers and children.

Mike Hobscheidt called Saturday and then went on to Sidney to the rodeo.

Mrs. Bert Worthan, Richard and Allen stopped in for a short visit Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spangler, Bill, Debbie and Henry were dinner guests of Mrs. William Halmes recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Puls and family of Little Rock, Ark., have been visiting in the Charles Martin home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Puls and family, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Puls, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Puls and boys, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Puls and family were at the Martin home Thursday night for a picnic supper.

Saturday guests of the Charles Martins were Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Marler and three grandchildren, also Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dill.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cudaback of McCool Junction were guests Friday through Sunday at the Earl Lancaster home. Mrs. Woodrow Roth of Englewood, Calif., the Cudabacks' daughter, was also here, returning home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bickett are in Des Moines for a week's vacation.
