Former Residents Here For King Korn

Among the many former residents of Plattsmouth back to enjoy the King Korn Carnival last week were Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Beller and Dick Elliott. They will be remembered here as children of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elliott, deceased, Mr. Beller a daughter and Dick a son. They have made their home in Illinois a great many years, Dick as an employee of the engineering department of the Burlington, and Mr. Beller also as a railroad employee. Dick is now in the office of city engineer at Aurora and Mr. Beller is now operating a large manufacturing plant in that city.

What's MISSING in a "BARGAIN" VITAMIN

The myth that all vitamins are of the same quality is fostered by promoters who have nothing to offer save "bargain" prices and whose only concern is their own profits. Mishandling, poor preparation, and adverse storage conditions can cause vitamins to lose up to 90% of their effectiveness before they are sold. Don't be fooled by claims. Be sure! Buy your vitamins at FELDHOUSEN'S, a reputable pharmacy that puts the guarantee of our professional integrity behind the quality and dependability of every product we sell.

Last Of Six Goes Off To School

An anecdote worth sharing with mothers whose last child has gone from the home for the first day of school. Upon arrival at home the little one heaved a big sigh and said "Home Sweet Home, did you miss me today mother?" The mother wanting to help wean the little one away replied "no". "What did you do all day mother?" Mother said she was busy with her housework, and went on with her work.

The child a little disappointed went out in the yard and found the family's big dog, threw her arm around the pet and said, "Prince, I bet YOU missed me." The mother in this instance is a wonderful mother of six children. The eldest graduated from College last year, the second child graduated from high school this year; the third child is a freshman in high school, the fourth child is an eighth grader, the fifth child is an elementary student and the baby is in first grade.
