

This 'n That In Agriculture

Congratulations are in order for Cass County exhibitors at Ak-Sar-Ben!

A Hampshire gilt owned by Linnea Ingwerson won the grand Champion Market Hog award at the livestock show. The pig was sold to Nixon and Company for $2 a lb. Linnea also showed another purple ribbon pig and 1 blue ribbon pig. Her pen of 3 market hogs received a purple award. Linnea is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Ingwerson of Plattsouth.

Kirby McGill of Louisville showed the Champion and Reserve Champion Landrace market hogs. He received a red award on his 3rd entry and a blue award on his pen of 3 market hogs.

Other swine awards included Jim Ingwerson's one red award and 2 white and Wayne Thoren with one red and one white ribbon.

Cass County's entry of 5 pigs owned by 3 exhibitors won a purple award and was declared the Reserve Champion County group of 5 pigs.

Silver Medal

In addition to taking top honors in the Market hog show Linnea Ingwerson won 2nd place and a silver medal in the Ak-Sar-Ben 4-H Swine Showmanship contest.

Wayne Thoren of Weeping Water was one of the 14 exhibitors to be selected to compete in this contest.

Reserve Champion

Jim Ingwerson's pen of five steers was named Reserve Grand Champion.

Fine Record

Cass Co. 4-H members scored well in the Dairy, Beef Breeding and fat beef show.

5 Dairy animals were exhibited. On these five animals 2 blue ribbons and 3 red ribbons were awarded.

The two beef breeding heifers were both placed in the red award group.

In the fat beef show six blue awards, 11 red awards and 2 white awards were given. The blue beef award winners were Gene Wehrbein one, Ronnie Nolte 2, Jim Ingwerson one, Linnea Ingwerson one, and Larry Gregg one.

The County exhibited a group of 5 steers in both the Angus and Hereford contests and received red awards on both groups.

At preparation of this release the pen of 5 steer show results were not yet available. — Clarence Schmadeke, County Agent.
