Little Things

Women often are heard to say "it's the little things that count," and, in our opinion, the little things are often underrated by many of us. Have you thought how worthwhile a smile every morning is? Or some little thing you might do for someone each day — this can change your whole life. And even if you do not know that life usually returns your kindnesses at a later stage, nonetheless these little considerations make life a better thing — and lift one's spirits.

The Boy Scouts and their good deed each day have a wonderful motto. Do you, each day, do someone a good turn, to lighten the daily grind and cheer them up just a bit? Try it. You'll find you feel better at the end of the day.

And in dealing with members of your family, who live in the same house, there is a rule which can be of great value to you all through life. It is not original with the editor — it came from a far more accomplished person. It is this: treat your husband or wife, or other members of your intimate family as nicely as you would treat a total stranger you might meet.

This sounds strange, but think it over. If we always treated our husband, or wife, as cordially and considerately as we would treat a total stranger, we would sometimes get along better, and life would be a little sweeter, the home just a little more rewarding.

Down Memory Lane

20 YEARS AGO

The Plattsmouth American Legion Drum & Bugle Corps were winners of first place at the Ak-Sar-Ben show in competitive drill with the drum corps from Syracuse. The Plattsmouth group received $100 in cash, a flag and trophies for the members. Cary Marshall was the drum major for the local team — Joe Phillips, Kenneth Durrell, Robert Simons, Bill Hull, Plattsmouth, Maurice Shirley, Weeping Water and James Drennan, Nehawka, reported at the division headquarters of the Civilian Conservation Corps in Omaha. The quota for Cass county was ten but only six responded — Dr. O. C. Hudson suffered fractured right ankle at the G. E. Neighborhood hospital where he was treating D. E. Waller who has been quite ill — Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Meisinger of south of Murray are parents of an eight pound son. The baby has been named David Philip — Bobby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Sedlak, was honored on his third birthday at the home of his parents with a party of little folks. Games were played in which Jon Schuetz and Karen Kalasek were prize winners. Birthday cake was baked by Mrs. John Wondra, an aunt. Those attending were: Judy Sikora, Shirley Duda, Robert Bestor, Dennis Ptak, Jon Schuetz, Karen Kalasek, Sally Fulton, Mary Joan Lohnes, George Ebersole, Patrick Strabus, Sherill Clayton, Bobby and Nancy Sedlak — Mr. and Mrs. William Seuf of this city are announcing the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Miss Edith, to Clifford Dasher, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dasher. The wedding will take place on October 15 at the parsonage of the First Christian church — At the Ak-Sar-Ben show in Omaha bronze pocket pieces were presented to the Ak-Sar-Ben Ambassadors in h states of Iowa and Nebraska. There were four from Cass county, Eddie Craig, Murdock; E. L. McDonald, Greenwood; William J. Rau, Manley and Elmer Webb, Plattsmouth — Sunday, October 6, Mrs. Peter F. 30 YEARS AGO

The farm of Glen Vallery, north of this city on highway 75, was visited by prowlers and as the result there is missing two sets of harness, practically new, as well as three sets of fly nets and eight horse collars as well as other articles, the total value of the property taken was estimated at $200. The Vallery farm has been the target of the thieves for some time, the farm, located on the highway, being of easy access to those passing by. Much grain has been taken from the farm — Platters dropped a game to Jug Brown's Falls City Tigers by a score of 32 to 0. In addition to the well coached and drilled opponents, the Platters were suffering from many injuries and presented a weak defence to the visitors. — John Galloway, end, of the local high school football team, who has been playing tackle in place of Gilbert Hirz, was injured in practice with the reserves — The traffic problem was becoming a real headache in Plattsmouth. On Main street as well as Sixth street, a great deal of truck travel adding to the problem. One day the congestion was so great that it was difficult for one car to get through. Cars were parked on both sides of Main street and a line down the center of the street, making it difficult for cars to get out of parking or traffic to travel up and down the street — Radio station KFNH at Shenandoah had as entertainers on their program Louie Kostka and son Frank on the accordion, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kohrell with violin numbers — Cass Camp No. 332 M W A staged an old fashioned Woodman logrolling and entertainment. Venerable Consul Clarence Favors, Worthy Advisor Oliver Finnifrock, Escort Clement Woster, Trustee George Luschinsky and Clark H. F. Goos were in charge of the program.

"Let's not forget the flowers, Bud."
