Nehawka WSCS Observes 20th Anniversary

NEHAWKA (Special) — The WSCS of the Methodist Church observed the 20th anniversary of its organization and Guest Day Wednesday afternoon at the church.

District officers present were Mmes. Gray, F. G. Estabrook, R. L. Strible, Earl Hudson, Frank Hobbs, all of Omaha; Mrs. Howard Wiles, Plattsmouth; Mrs. Melvin Conley, Nebraska City; Mrs. Elmer Rexroth, Humboldt. Other guests were Mrs. John Groesser, president of the Weeping Water WSCS and a number of their members.

The program was given by the district officers and emphasized the theme of the day, living Echoes. Each participant had a problem which was to be solved by the Christian Citizenship committee. The problems were alcoholism, the age factor in getting work, colored people and the Chinese, who felt they did not have the opportunities the whites have. The good work of the United Nations was brought out.

Rev. C. F. Weldeman announced he is leaving the Weeping Water - Nehawka charges for Oakland West Side near Oakland, Neb., the first part of November.

Mrs. Emma Nutzman presided. She announced the women of the church had painted the basement, cleaned the rooms and made new curtains for the kitchen, dining room and the new room upstairs. Mrs. Ona Kunkel, spiritual life chairman, announced World Day of Prayer and Self Denial would be observed October 25-31, with a special program.

A birthday cake marked the 20th anniversary of the WSCS and was served with refreshments. Hostesses were Mmes. Clifford Trotter, LeRoy Ross, Harold Dodson, Vina Beatty and Miss Evelyn Wolph.

Immanuel Lutheran Church News

EAGLE (Special) — Major and Mrs. Wm. Seeber and son Timmy of Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas and Mrs. Carl Hurst of Tecumseh called at the home of Mrs. Seeber's uncle, Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Prange, for a short visit.

Mrs. Seebers is the daughter of Pastor Prange's brother a missionary in the Philippines. The Seebers last summer returned from an extended tour of duty in Germany with the U. S. Army.

Major Seebers is at the present time, attending the Staff College at Ft. Leavenworth. The Pranges visited Major Seebers in Tokyo, Japan in 1948 when he was serving there.

A monthly meeting was held at the Immanuel Lutheran church, Oct. 17, with the Pastors and families of the Lincoln Circuit of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod.

A communion service was held at 12 noon, after which the group of 30 had potluck lunch. The men went into business session until 3 p.m.

Pastors were from the Lincoln Congregations, Crete, Kramer, Pleasant Dale and Walton. Pastor and Mrs. J. W. A. Becker of the Immanuel Lutheran church of Duluth, Kansas visited her brother, Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Prange and family on last Sunday and Monday. They were accompanied by their son, Larry, home on leave from U.S. Air Force, prior to his going to Europe for a 3 year tour of duty there. The Beckers left on Monday afternoon.

The Immanuel Lutheran parsonage was a meeting place for missionaries, Harold Oemoeller, stationed in Ghana, West Africa and L. W. Meitzen in Tinnevely District, India, Tuesday noon.

Rev. Prange, and the above missionaries had not seen each other since graduation from the Seminary 1947. The Meizens and Pranges had been neighbors in India, where the former's parents and a brother are also serving.

A great deal of visiting was crowded into the short time available for exchanging news and reminiscing on about the last few years.

The Regular meeting of voters of Immanuel Lutheran church chose the following officers for 1961, as follows: chairman, Fred Schuick, Alvo; vice chairman, Morris Muenchau, Eagle; recording secretary Wm. Umland, Omaha; financial secretary, Lloyd Althouse; Elmwood; elder Geo. Wolf and trustee Clyde Althouse. The last two officers have 3-year terms.

Discussion was about expanding space needed for 51 Sunday school children. A committee was appointed to study the matter and report the results to the officers.

You're the Expert on GAS HEATING

Hi, Fred, how's your new GAS HEATING SYSTEM?

GREAT! WE GET INSTANT, UNIFORM HEAT FROM FLOOR TO CEILING IN EVERY ROOM... AND HUMIDITY IS NEVER A PROBLEM.

YOU MEAN THE TEMPERATURE IS THE SAME ALL OVER THE HOUSE?

THAT'S RIGHT, JOHN. FORCED AIR GAS SYSTEMS MOVE THE AIR AROUND. NO COLD CORNERS, NO HOT SPOTS, NO UNHEALTHY DRAFTS.

WELL, YOU'RE SURE READY FOR WINTER.

YES, AND SUMMER, TOO. IN HOT WEATHER, OUR UNIT WORKS AS A CENTRAL AIR CONDITIONER. STOP IN AND TAKE A LOOK.

THIS HEATER IS CERTAINLY COMPACT. BUT, WHERE'S THIS COOLER YOU MENTIONED?

YOU'RE LOOKING AT IT. GAS HEATS AND COOLS THE ENTIRE HOUSE, GIVES US YEAR-ROUND CLIMATE CONTROL... AND AT A SURPRISINGLY LOW COST.

I KNOW GAS IS SURE TOPS ON OTHER JOBS AROUND THE HOUSE.

IT'S TOPS FOR HEATING, TOO. FACTS SHOW THAT 22 MILLION FAMILIES IN THE U.S. ENJOY GAS HEAT.
