Obituary
Dudley Leavitt
ELMWOOD (Special) — Dudley Leavitt was born March 18, 1886, in Stanford, Conn. As an orphan from New York he was placed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Holderness where he stayed until Mrs. Holderness' death when he was 14 years of age. After two years of high school and learning photography at the Townsend Studio he went to California where he was married to Mina Taylor. Dudley studied voice in New York one winter. They were in real estate business and later took up interior decorating. They came back to Elmwood to retire in 1949. Mrs. Leavitt died Aug. 24, 1956.

Obituary
ELMWOOD — William Howker Huffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Huffman, was born on the farm near Elmwood, Dec. 3, 1890. He was married to Miss Minnie Ruhge at Council Bluffs, Iowa, Oct. 30, 1923. One daughter, Roberta was born to the couple. Mr. Huffman was a member of the Methodist Church in Elmwood, and continued in that faith up to the time of his death, Oct. 24. Mr. Huffman lived and farmed on the old homestead, five and one-half miles south east of Elmwood, his entire life. Survivors are his wife, Minnie; daughter, Roberta; brother, John Huffman of Plainview; and sister Lillian Huffman, Shenandoah, Iowa.

HAW, HAW — That was a good one, laughed this Halloween character. Who was she? Who cares when she like the record hundreds of other children who tricked-or-treated here Monday had such a good time.

Week of Prayer Observed by Union W.S.C.S.

Elmwood School Notes
ELMWOOD (Special) — Richard Vogt, sophomore at Elmwood, had the distinction of being the only one on the honor roll the first six weeks in the Elmwood High School. He tallied 38 points, one more than the 37 required for those students carrying five subjects. The three upper classes are all carrying five subjects. The Freshmen carry four.
Our grading system this year is new for Elmwood. Instead of letters we are using numbers, similar to the system used at the University of Nebraska and many other schools. It is as follows:
9-97-100, Excellent.
8-93-96, Superior.
7-89-92, Very Good.
6-85-88, Above Average.
5-80-84, average.
4-75-79, Below Average.
3-70-74, Passing.
2-69-below, Failing.
1-Conditional Pass.
0-No credit.
People carrying four subjects must have 30 to qualify for the honor roll. We are hoping for several more to qualify next six weeks. Congratulations, Richard!

Elmwood Gridders Defeat Eagle
ELMWOOD (Special) — Elmwood downed Eagle Oct. 26 in a real thriller. The final score was 19-0. Touchdowns were made by Don Hollenbeck on a four yard plunge in the first quarter, a pass from Richard Vogt to Gary Clements for 3 yds. in the second quarter and a pass from Richard Vogt to Clayton Miller covering 35 yds. in the fourth quarter. The extra point was made after the second touchdown by a fake drop kick by Gary Clements who passed to Clayton Miller in the end zone.
Elmwood was inside the Eagle 5 yd. line on two other occasions but the tough Eagle defense stopped Elmwood short of the touchdown and took over the ball.
The outstanding players on defense could not be singled out as all played rough and tough football. This defensive viciousness allowed Eagle to cross the 40 yard line into Elmwood territory only twice in each half.
The outstanding offensive line men were Chuck Green and Bob Fleischman who tore open the holes in the defensive line. Erich Sender who threw vicious downfield blocks to spring backs loose on long runs, and Gary Clements who caught passes and blocked well and Arlan Hollenbeck who intercepted an Eagle pass and ran it back for 45 yards. The outstanding offensive backfield players were Donnie Hollenbeck who plunged and played his best game of the season, Clayton Miller who ran and caught passes superbly, and Richard Vogt who quarterbacked and passed perfectly.

In keeping up the rivalry and tradition of all Eagle-Elmwood sports contests, it was a tough and hard fought battle. Congratulations to both teams.
This game meant a lot to Elmwood as winning it gave us first place in the County Conference. Dale Vanderhoff, coach of the Elmwood Pirates is to be congratulated on the fine performance of his team.
The next game is with Sprague-Martel at Elmwood, Friday, Nov. 4.
