Violinist Rubinoff Believes 'The Show Must Go On!'

In show business or the musical profession, it is legend that "the show must go on" regardless of anything else.

Each year Rubinoff and his violin travels thousands of miles to meet scheduled appearances in concert.

Rubinoff will appear here Monday, Nov. 7, at 8:15 p.m., at the High School Auditorium.

But, sometimes meeting schedules is almost an impossibility. Unusual experiences are incurred and even humorous situations develop. Seeing the genial, relaxed violinist on the stage and seeming to enjoy himself as much as his audience, it's difficult to realize the adventurous situations which develop in traveling. Once on The Tamiami Trail down the west coast of Florida, Rubinoff and his party left late at night for Miami not realizing the superstition of the Indians for staying inside at night caused all the gasoline stations to close soon after dusk. With every station closed and the tank registering empty, it began to look as if the night would be spent in the car and just wait for morning.

Just at that minute a darkened station loomed up on the side of the road. Two huge dogs barked so furiously that it didn't look safe to get out of the car.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Steiner attended the funeral Saturday, Oct. 29, of his grandfather, Mr. Fred W. Bausch of Burchard. He is survived by 15 children, 46 grandchildren, 32 great grandchildren.

Miss Sylvia Steiner attended teachers convention and visited her home folks. She teaches music in Sidney. Dorilyn and friend, Wayne Cheney of Wayne, also visited home folks. Mrs. Steiner's sister, Mrs. Cewecks of Tecumseh was a Sunday visitor.

Miss Hattie Coe of Lincoln was a weekend visitor at the Harry Arnold home. The ladies are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Featman of Rock Port, Mo. were callers at the Ray Featman home last week.

Rubinoff did the next best thing — he yelled at the top of his voice "This is Rubinoff — we're out of gas!"

A light appeared and the reluctant owner finally came out, but only after Rubinoff showed his violin and proved his identification. And so once again the schedule was kept on time with no delay.

Blow-outs, blizzards, road detours, cancellation of plane flights due to weather, sudden floods making impassable obstructions, fogs, sand storms, icy roads, have all been encountered by Rubinoff on his touring of the nation. But luck seems to always be in his favor.

So far not one engagement has been missed and it is a rarity for him to be fifteen minutes late even on his early morning arrivals for his favorite hobby of appearing in free school assemblies in every city he visits.

He has hitch-hiked with good Samaritans of the road, been pulled out of snow banks, landed blind in a sand storm in an army plane and countless other experiences, but — THE SHOW DID GO ON! ! !

Letter Thanks Jaycees for Teenage Party

Dear Editor:

I wish to thank the Jaycees and all those responsible for the Halloween dance that was given for the teenagers Monday night.

I for one enjoyed it very much and wish there were more like this sponsored for us from time to time.

I realize also that some of the caper's pulled by a few will probably hurt our chance's for another one next year. But, I wanted the Jaycees to know and all who were responsible for the party, some of us appreciated it, and sincerely hope that all of us who did enjoy it, won't be let down next year for a few of other's misdeeds.

Sincerely, Ted Bowen,
a Senior

DEMOCRAT CANDIDATE FOR COMMISSIONER, DISTRICT ONE

It is a known fact that during the past few years the Commissioners have had some very stormy sessions. There have been quarrels, friction and disagreements. I do not blame any one member of the board for this, but surely the Commissioners from District 2 and 3 would be more apt to co-operate with a newly elected Commissioner.

If I am elected I will take a definite stand on any issue that will benefit the majority of the people. Any decision that I make will be open for public information.

I am a native of Cass County, land owner and taxpayer. I believe we should receive 100% value for every tax dollar.

I promise you that if I am elected I will encourage elimination of waste and extravagant spending of the taxpayers' hard earned dollar.

If you think I would do a good job for you as your representative I would appreciate your vote and support at the election on November 8.
