AF Family Is Home After Seven Years Overseas

Returning to the States after seven years overseas with the Air Force were T-Sgt. and Mrs. J. L. Schwartz and children Jerry Jay, Leslie, Michael and Donald. Mrs. Schwartz is the former Patricia Gansemer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gansemer, Murray.

The family was stationed in England three years and in France 4 years. Their flight to the States was Sept. 28. Since that time they have been visiting in Minneapolis with Mr. Schwartz' sister, and in Plattsmouth with relatives.

T-Sgt. Schwartz and children remain with her parents in Murray for an extended visit.

Leaving England was a little disappointing for Mrs. Schwartz, as her sister and family, M-Sgt. and Mrs. Robert Krejci are stationed there, the sisters lived only 100 miles apart. Mrs. Krejci is the former Barbara Gansemer. They are due home in approximately 15 months.

Arrival in Plattsmouth was a happy occasion for the Schwartzes. The grandparents and great grandmother, Mrs. Anna Gansemer, of Plattsmouth, had not met the three younger Schwartz children, Leslie, Michael and Donald.

Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gansemer were hosts at their home in Murray honoring the Schwartz' homecoming. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gansemer of Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Joy Haswell and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Speck and family and Mrs. Anna Gansemer of Plattsmouth.

Christian Ladies Council Meets at Elmwood Church

ELMWOOD — The Elmwood Christian Ladies Council met at the church with Mrs. Amy Irons as hostess.

Dorothy Wilhelm conducted the lesson and devotions on "The Light of the World." Mrs. Edna Reid and Helen Summer were speaking choir. Assisting were Bess Robb, Opal Shreve, Norma Hall and Dorothy Miller. Mrs. Irons and Mrs. Creamer sang, "The Light of the World Is Jesus."

Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Wm. Vogt were guests at our meeting.

The ladies set Nov. 21 for a cleaning and winter preparation day. For the November meeting they will bring gifts for a White Christmas for the children at Child's Saving in Omaha. They receive lots of toys through charitable organizations so members plan to give clothing and bedding. Mr. Barns will secure a list from the Home stating their needs.

Plattsmouth Woman's Club Meets At Lugsch Home

The regular November meeting of the Plattsmouth woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. Fred Lugsch, one week early on Halloween eve, and Mrs. Lugsch was well remembered by the small fry and youth for tricks or treats.

Our president opened the meeting by greeting the members, reading a poem "I'm Fine."

Roll call was answered by 26 members who responded with a personal expression of thanks. Two guests were present, Garce Livingston, and Mrs. Al Nierste of Omaha.

In unison we read the club woman's collect and gave the Pledge of Allegiance.

Devotions on Thanksgiving were given by Mrs. Ernest C. Giles.

The committees for the year were read by the president.

A short report on district convention at Auburn, was given by our delegate Mrs. Heinrich.

The Women's Club has eleven million members in the world. Six million members in the U.S., and five million overseas.

A vote of thanks was given to Mrs. McMaken for furnishing transportation for the delegates to the district convention.

State convention will be held April 10-11-12 in Grand Island.

The Christmas party will be held Dec. 5 at the McMaken home. Food packages will be given by the members for sharing with others.

Members were reminded of the privilege to vote in the coming general election, and to consider the levy for our historical museum. The state historical society will meet here in our museum, next October.

Mrs. Dale Philpot showed her excellent colored movies of their recent European tour of twelve countries. Her description and narration of places visited, was enjoyed by all.

Meeting closed by serving Halloween refreshments by Madames Knorr, Vallery, Kraeger, Coleman, Ohschlayer, Niel.

Couple Attend JC Fall Quarterly

Oct. 21, Wayne Schneider State Flag Sale Chairman of the Nebraska Jaycees and wife Jeanie who is State Vice President of the Nebraska Mrs. Jaycees and local president of the Plattsmouth Mrs. Jaycees drove to McCook to attend the Nebraska Junior Chamber's fall quarterly conference.

Saturday, the Junior Chamber and Mrs. Jaycees held information forums and Executive Board meetings.

Saturday night, the banquet and dance was held and Sunday morning the quarterly business meeting was held. Sunday morning speakers were National Vice President Dean Arbuckle of Jefferson, Iowa and Myron "Mike" Milder of Omaha National Director Corly Thompson of St. Louis, Mo. and National Chairman Clarence Courtney of Los Alamos, N. M.

At the men's meeting, the Nebraska Jaycees went on record to support the amendment proposed by the special legislative session to gain industry for Nebraska.

While at the quarterly, Wayne reported he got in some pheasant hunting, bringing back his limit.

Sunday the couple journeyed back to Plattsmouth.

Gamma Chapter With Marie Halth

The Gamma Chapter of the Alpha Delta Kappa held its October meeting at the country home of Marie Halth.

President Dorothy Todd presided.

The business discussed was the pre-convention dinner to be held in Omaha preceding teachers convention. Dorothy Todd and Katherine Sandin agreed to represent Gamma Chapter.

State Historian Katherine Sandin gave a report on the state executive meeting.

The chapter agreed to adopt patients in the Cass County rest home and send them small remembrances on certain holidays. They also agreed to congratulate and encourage any prospective teacher graduate from Plattsmouth High School.

After a social silent auction, lunch was served by the hostess.

Guest Speaker at First Methodist

The Rev. Charles E. Funk, chaplain of the Nebraska Methodist Hospital of Omaha, will be the guest speaker at First Methodist Church here Sunday at 11 a.m.

The Rev. Arthur L. Embree will be at Grand Island where he is taking several laymen for the State-wide Nebraska Laymen's Conference.

OUR CAMP FIRE GIRLS

We had a Halloween party at Yvonne Jochimsen's house. We played games and told stories. We had refreshments also and other things. We gave out prizes to the winners of games.

Also we made all the words we could out of the word Halloween. The most made was 34.

After we ate we went trick or treating.

Nov. 3 we are going to have a father and daughter party. It is 25c for two. Rebecca Ary, reporter.
