Accompanying Willie to New York City will be Ernie Schultz, proprietor of Ernie's Bar.
Schultz spearheaded a previous fund drive to raise funds to send Willie three times for medical attention—once to Chicago for surgery which proved unsuccessful; twice to New York City, for the examination which led to scheduling the corneal transplant, and for preparatory surgery for the transplant.
Of that fund some $330 remained and has been added to the current fund.
Soon, Willie's chance to see again will be in the hands of Dr. Ramon Castorvejo, a specialist in corneal transplants.
Pulling for Willie here will be his wife, Geraldine, and children—Willard Jr., 11; David, 8; Patsy, 7; Susie, 5; Eddie, 4, and Janet six months.
Schultz will take Willie to New York City help him register at the doctor's office and get settled in a hotel to wait for the operation. The doctor has promised it will be soon after Willie arrives.
If there are no delays, Schultz plans to stay for the operation.
Mrs. Simons will go to New York City to accompany her husband home when his convalescent period is over.
She went there with him previously but couldn't this time because four of their youngsters are in school.
Willie expects to have to be hospitalized three weeks after the transplant. He doesn't know how long afterward it will be before he knows whether is was successful.
The three weeks would seem an eternity to most people. Willie has already waited nine years.
