PLANE VS GEESE

Muskegon, Mich. — A flock of geese winging southward for the winter and a North Central Airlines passenger plane collided high in the sky near Lake Michigan recently.

The geese broke the windshield of the two-engine DC-3 plane and had to make an emergency landing at the Muskegon county airport. The plane was grounded here for repairs and the 25 passengers continued their journey to Green Bay, Wis., in a replacement plane.

Productionally the picture is top grade in all technical departments. — Variety.
