

Barnard Named
VFW Aid-De-Camp

Ted C. Connell, Killen, Texas, Commander-in-Chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U. S., today announced that Jack Barnard, of Plattsmouth, has been appointed National Aide-de-Camp of the V. F. W.

In making his announcement of the appointment Commander-in-Chief Connell said: "It is a real pleasure for me to be able to appoint Mr. Barnard as a National Aide-de-Camp in our organization. In this capacity he will serve as a personal representative of mine and I know by his past achievements that he will continue to stand up for progress and achievement not only in the V.F.W. but also in his community, state and nation. Because of his past efforts the Veterans of Foreign Wars is today a better organization."

Sheriff Probing
Local House
Party Brawl

A early Saturday morning brawl in the north part of Plattsmouth is being investigated by the sheriff's office.

The brawl, which was the climax to a house party, sent one youth to a Nebraska City hospital with a serious arm injury and a broken tooth. The party reportedly started at 12:30 Friday night and ended when the fight took place around 8 a.m. Saturday.

Sheriff Solomon stated that evidence gathered will be turned over to the county attorney for his disposition.

Louisville Beer Party Under Observation

A beer party, involving many minors, is still under investigation by the sheriff's office. The party took place in the south part of Louisville Saturday night and was spotted by Sheriff Solomon while returning from Greenwood. Four car loads of youths took part and they were from Omaha, Louisville Weeping Water. A quantity of opened and unopened beer cans were picked up in the area.

Returning to Plattsmouth the sheriff took into temporary custody an eighteen year old girl found walking down Main Street in an intoxicated condition. Her case has been turned over to the county attorney according to Sheriff Solomon.

SURPRISED DRIVER

Philadelphia — Henry Glasse turned the steering wheel of his delivery truck as he approached a slight curve but his vehicle didn't respond.

The surprised driver discovered the steering wheel had come off in his hands.

The truck lurched over some railroad tracks and hit a station wagon. No one was hurt.
