"South Pacific" Coming to the Cass Theatre

Mrs. Jess Fidler

Rodgers and Hammerstein's Pulitzer prize-winning musical, "South Pacific," will have its De Luxe Color motion picture premiere at the Cass Theatre, Plattsmouth on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, November 28, 29, 30.

About 90 per cent of "South Pacific" was shot on one of the most picturesque spots in the Pacific—Kauai—known as the "Garden Island of the Hawaiians," the remainder was completed on the Twentieth Century-Fox lots in Hollywood. Shown in its entirety after more than a years run in Omaha.

The screen version was directed by Joshua Logan, who also directed the original stage production which opened on Broadway in 1949 and ran for almost five years.

The same creative team responsible for "South Pacific's" Theatre production, brought it to the screen under Buddy Adelman's producing guidance.

Richard Rodgers, Oscar Hammerstein II and Joshua Logan. The now-famous music and lyrics, introduced ten years ago, sound as fresh as ever on the screen.

"South Pacific," adapted from James Michener's best-selling novel, "Tales of the South Pacific," is the love story of a U.S. Navy nurse, played by Mitzi Gaynor, during World War II.
