Reserves Beat Tecumseh, 24-22

Plattsmouth High's Reserve basketball team almost frittered away an eight point lead in the last quarter but defeated Tecumseh's Reserves, 24-22.

The Blue Devils seconds were up 23-15, going into the last quarter and still led with minutes to go. But Tecumseh closed in against substitute players as the seconds ticked away to almost tie.

Dave Nettleman led Plattsmouth with eight points, six in the first quarter. Jim Ingwerson had six and Dan Schultz five.

Plattsmouth had a 10-7 advantage in field goals but converted only 4 of 13 free throws.

In volleyball, Eagle won 10 to 5; the second was taken by Elmwood 13 to 3; the third game was a real thriller with Sherry Stolz's serving and spiking winning the game for Elmwood.

Next home game will be Dec. 13 with Malcolm.

Sunday-Tuesday Adult Tickets at Theater Up 25c

Adult admission prices to the Sunday-Tuesday shows at the Cass theatre have been raised to 75c, according to an announcement in this issue of The Journal by Guy G. Griffin, owner of the local theatre.

Griffin gave as the reason the steadily rising cost of doing business, pointing to numerous raises in his operation that he has absorbed without any raise in admission prices over the past years.

Griffin will not raise the admission on children's tickets nor on the Thursday-Saturday program at this time.

Griffin feels that the children are the backbone of his business and doesn't want to work hardship on the youngsters.

The high calibre of the programs booked for early showing at the local theatre will be well worth the money, according to Griffin.

Missile Bases Topic at Eagle

EAGLE (Special) — On Dec. 19 at 8 p.m. the Eagle Community is urged to be present at the Eagle Schoolhouse.

Air force personnel will be present and will give an educational program concerning the Missile Bases and conduct a question and answer session.

Investigations last year by the U. S. Labor Department found 5,900 children illegally employed in nonfarm work.

NO EASY PICKINGS—Rebounding was no soft touch in the Plattsmouth-Tecumseh game Tuesday night. At top, Plattsmouth's Duane Haith (53) wins the fight for a rebound from three Tecumseh players. Jim Stewart (53) is at right. In the other photo, Tecumseh's Larry Johnson (24) manages to win in a tussle with Rog Beverage and Dave Albert (31).

Huddle—Coach John Adkins huddles with his starting five during a first-quarter time-out. Dave Albert is behind the coach, flanked by Rog Beverage and Duane Haith. Denny Campbell (23) and Jim Stewart are the others.

Devils Lose Cage Opener, 58 to 37

It was no "T" party Tuesday night and there may not be "Fair" weather ahead Friday night when the Plattsmouth High basketball team opens its home schedule at 8 o'clock.

After the reserve teams have played at 6:30, the Blue Devil varsity meets Fairbury's young but well-regarded Jeffs in the Twin Rivers Conference season opener.

It'll be no picnic for Plattsmouth, judging from Fairbury's one-point loss to perennially-tough Marysville, Kan., in its opener last weekend.

At Tecumseh Tuesday night the loyal following of Plattsmouth roofers saw a typically "first" game, in which three opponents combined to beat the Blue Devils, 58-37.

One opponent was the first game fitters which Plattsmouth had a plenty. Tecumseh was nervous at the start, too, but in familiar surroundings recovered.

Another foe was the little, "stage" basketball court on which the Blue Devils made many mistakes which can be attributed to unfamiliarity with the "almost nothing" out of bounds areas and the under-sized playing floor.

But, the most formidable opponent was a fivesome of co-operative Tecumseh regulars. They'd evidently played together long and knew one another's moves.

Plattsmouth got off to a bad start and came close to recovering only for a brief stretch in the third quarter.

Tecumseh led 16-5 after one period and 28-18 at the half. Plattsmouth pulled up to within seven in the third when Rog Beverage got five of his team-leading 11 points.

But, the Devils faded rapidly as forward Larry Johnson got five goals for Tecumseh in the first half of the last quarter.

Plattsmouth suffered through a 204 night of field goal shooting on only 10 goals in 49 tries. It was 1 for 9 and 2 for 14 in the first two periods, 2 for 17 and 5 for 9 in the second half.

A bright spot for the Devils was good freethrowing, 17 for 22, or 77.

Tecumseh was less than brilliant, shooting 329 from the field and 8 for 21 from the foul line.

Two Plattsmouth players were handicapped some, Jim Stewart having reinjured a knee in practice Monday and Beverage nursing an ankle sprain.

Here Friday night, Fairbury will bring in a squad which features speed and ball handling, since its tallest player is Fred Preston, 6-2½.

The team's only letterman is Ken Stauss, a 5-8½, guard who averaged 16 points a game last year.

John Nespor and Kaye Carstens, both 6-footers, are other key players.

Last year, Fairbury defeated Plattsmouth, 64-35, at Fairbury.
