Mrs. Nolte Hosts Extension Club

The final 1960 meeting of Sunnyside Extension Club was held Dec. 8. Mrs. Eugene Nolte was hostess this year for the annual Christmas luncheon. Ten members enjoyed visiting and singing carols following lunch.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Dennison Price and opened with the flag salute.

The program for 1961 was outlined, with hostesses and leaders for each meeting tentatively set. It was decided by parliamentary procedure, to again have Secret Pals, for birthdays and anniversaries only, and names were drawn.

The formal meeting was adjourned with members repeating the Lord's Prayer.

Mrs. Victor Schwartz presented the program, "Christmas Decorating with Lights," showing colored pictures of popular decorations from different sections of the nation. She stressed home construction of the basic designs, displaying a beautiful tree centerpiece made of embroidery hoops, spun glass miniature Christmas globes and lights.

Emphasis was placed upon properly sized bulbs and equipment, and the use of each item for what it was originally intended, correct use of indoor and outdoor lights was discussed.

Following the program, members shared in a special cookie grab-bag." Mrs. C. N. Maxwell, club reporter.
