Mrs. L. G. Todd — Phone 2441

A girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles James at a Clay Center, Kan., Hospital Dec. 8. The baby weighed 8 pounds, 4 ounces and was named Lisa Beth. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker, parents of Mrs. James, were at her home caring for little Debbie Baker. Mrs. Baker had the misfortune to have a bad fall and broke her right arm in two places, so will be unable to care for the family.

Mrs. Ruth Kettelhut spent last Sunday in Nehawka where she attended Church services and at noon she was a guest of Mrs. Amelia Balfour at a luncheon given by Mrs. Balfour given for members of her Sunday School class later in the evening Mrs. Kettelhut was brought to Union by friends who also called on Mrs. Todd. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. George Sheldon, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson and Mrs. Ona Kunkel, all of Nehawka.

Last Thursday was another "painting day" for a group of the Methodist ladies but other members came in the afternoon at which Mrs. Luella Hansen and Mrs. Earl Herman were hostesses. A short business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Russel Easter. Mrs. Todd led the devotions and also read an article entitled "What does the Lord require of You?" Mrs. Racheal Murphy reviewed the last half of the study book, "Faith in Bondage."

Mrs. Horace Griffin who has been hospitalized in a Lincoln hospital the past two weeks, was able to return home last Friday. She is glad to be home, especially now since Christmas is so near. While she is recuperating she is busy writing her Christmas cards and letters.

Earl Crawford of Omaha was in Union last Monday calling on some of her friends and people who were neighbors of the Crawford family when they used to live here many years ago. His parents and brothers all live in the east, Maryland, Washington and Virginia. He spent a short time and called on Mrs. Todd also.

GOOD LITTLE GIRLS, ARE THEY—Santa's Headquarters at the Chamber of Commerce Office here (he's there every night but Sunday from 7 to 9) has turned up an amazing statis-tie: all little boys and girls, 100 per cent of them, have been good the past year. Naturally, they'll be rewarded come The Night Before Christmas.

Avoca Mission Society Has 170 At Workshop
AVOCA (Special) — The Missionary Society of the First Lutheran Church had their workshop Thursday afternoon at the church parlors.

Hostesses were Mrs. Albert Bose, Mrs. Oscar Brandt, Mrs. Ervin Carlson, Miss Marie Dankleff, Mrs. Harvey Dettmer and some others helped.

About one hundred seventy ladies attended this affair which included ladies from the surrounding churches.

The theme was "Everywhere Christmas." They displayed articles on decorative Christmas ideas and unusual Christmas foods.

Several tables had displays of Foreign Countries.

The Society is now known as "The Women of the Church."

Program Is Dec. 23
UNION — Correction: In listing the dates of the Christmas programs, there has been one date changed. The Methodist Sunday School program will be held on Dec. 23 (Friday) instead of Dec. 22. Children should be at the church at 7:30. The program is at 8 p.m.

FLOATING MESSAGES
Piedmont, Ala. — Though some might cast bread upon the waters, the Rev. Jewel Pierce believes in tossing in a bottle now and then.

"The bottle and water preacher" of Piedmont is known in at least 29 states and eight foreign countries.

His contact with the world is by means of bits of scripture which he seals in bottles and drops into the Coosa River.

FIRST AID ADVICE
In a compound fracture, in which the bone protrudes through the skin, support by grasping the injured limb firmly, one hand above the bone end, the other below, to prevent movement of the injured arm or leg until a splint can be applied. This advice should be followed for all fractures of the long bones.

'Mary's Dream' Weeping Water Church Choral

WEEPING WATER (Special) — This year, in place of a Christmas play, the Congregational Church put on a special program and carol service entitled, "Mary's Dream."

The setting was the room of an Egyptian inn, bare except for 2 chairs and a table with oriental coverings, while a tall vase of papyrus grass and bullrushes stood in one corner.

A shepherd boy (Jimmie Bender) appears and meets one of the wisemen who has been to Bethlehem. (Joe Bender).

He questions the wiseman, "Tell me, wiseman," and a dialogue ensues after which both leave together.

A little later a banging is heard on the door of the inn and the inn keeper (Murray Mutter) lets in Mary (Dorothy Parsons) who sits down in one of the chairs with the baby Jesus (Jeff Parsons) while Joseph (Lani Beach) argues with the innkeeper.

Payment made, the innkeeper brings in a tray of refreshments, draws the curtains and leaves. Happy to be safe in Egypt, Mary croons to the baby and falls asleep. While asleep she dreams of all the events since the Annunciation.

These are provided by the congregation and a reader in a series of scripture readings, poems, carols and choral readings. Solos were sung by Bonnie Noble (The Magnificat), accompanied by Mary Alice Wood, Lawrence Houseman (O, Holy Night) and C. V. Wallick (The Star of Bethlehem).

Events in Egypt were supplied by readings from the Apocryphal Gospel of the Infancy. Miss Kathryn Ellis provided the music, the costumes were by Mrs. Campbell and the make up by Truman Lytle.

Wayne Dettmer had charge of the lights while Gary Seeger, Tom Hays, Clarke Steckley & Kenny Clarke acted as ushers. The program was prepared and directed by the pastor, I. C. G. Campbell.

Army Master Sergeant —

JOHN H. HANLON, dressed as Santa Claus, makes Christmas warmer for this child at the Catonsville, Maryland, Cerebral Palsy Rehabilitation Center. The Sergeant, of 7833 Vernon Ave., Chicago, Ill., is distributing gifts at the children's Christmas Party.
